

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO THE GOVERNORS
OF THE
BOUNTY OF QUEEN ANNE,
FOR THE

Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

Having received your permission to compile a concise History of the Proceedings of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, with an Account of all Augmentations, to the end of the year 1825, granted to small Cures out of the Revenues placed at the disposal of the Governors by the Bounty of the Royal Founder, by the Munificence of Parliament in the last and in the present Reign, and by the Donations of many pious Individuals, I have accordingly proceeded in this Work; to which I have added a Statement of the present practice of the Governors in augmenting poor Livings and in the general administration of the Trust reposed in them: And I now most respectfully present to you, my Lords and Gentlemen, the Result of my Labors.

That the Compilation may prove to be as correct as the nature of it will admit, and may thus serve not only as a source of information to those particularly interested in the subject, but also, by communicating to the Public in general the true state and the exceeding usefulness of this noble Charity, may conduce to an Increase in the List of its Benefactors, is the sincere wish of,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your dutiful Servant and Secretary,

CHRISTOPHER HODGSON.

PROCEEDINGS
RELATIVE TO QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.

The Origin of First Fruits and Tenths.

IN giving an account of the proceedings of the Corporation of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, it seems necessary to advert to the history of the First Fruits and Tenths of Spiritual Preferments in this kingdom, because the revenue hence arising, which formerly belonged to the Crown, was, on the establishment of the Corporation by Queen Anne, granted to the Governors; as the fund with which they were to effect her Majesty's pious intentions.

First Fruits
and Tenths.

A short account will be sufficient to shew the nature and origin of the First Fruits and Tenths as imposed upon the Clergy by the See of Rome, claiming the disposal of ecclesiastical livings within Christendom; as also to record the subsequent annexation thereof to the Crown of England, and the ultimate appropriation of them to the augmentation of small livings.

Short Account of the Nature and Origin of them proposed.

Extract from Collyer's Ecclesiastical History.

The Pope's demand of Tenths.

Assented
to.

Collections rigorously enforced.

Collyer, in his Ecclesiastical History in Henry the Third's Reign, (A.D. 1229,) gives the following particulars :—" The Pope having gratified the King in an Archbishop, sent one Stephen, his Nuncio, into England, to move farther for the grant of the Tenths. The King being acquainted with his business, summoned a Parliament to Westminster ; where, besides the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, those who held of the King in capite made part of the session. The Nuncio read the Pope's letters in Parliament, and insisted upon a tenth of their moveables to carry on the war against the Emperor. The King being pre-engaged by his promise, was silent upon the demand. The temporal Barons gave a positive denial ; the Bishops desired three or four days to consider the matter, but wanting resolution to stand the Pope's censures, they gave their consent. The Nuncio's business being thus far effected, he produced an authority from the Pope to collect the tax. And here he had particular instructions to inquire into the utmost value, and assess the subject accordingly. And in case the collectors met with any opposition, they were to proceed to the censures of excommunication and the interdict. And because the Pope wanted a present supply against the Emperor, the prelates were compelled to furnish the money before hand, with a promise of being reimbursed when the tax was paid in. In short, the rigour was such, that the Clergy were forced to pawn and sell the church plate, and take up money at interest of Italian merchants. And thus the kingdom was miserably exhausted of its treasure: there being none but Ralph Earl of Chester, who had the courage to oppose the encroachment."

And the same author, in that part of his History which relates to the reign of King Edward the First, (A. D. 1307,) states—"and to gratify his Holiness farther, he allows his Nuncio, as far as in him lies, to collect the First Fruits of vacant benefices, either with or without cure, for the term required by his Holiness, (that is for three years,) the prohibitions made in Parliament notwithstanding; upon condition however that they do not collect any of the revenues of the vacant Monasteries for the Pope's use. They were likewise enjoined not to transport any of the money, collected in specie, but only remit it by bills of exchange. Upon this occasion it may not be improper to say something concerning the import and original of First Fruits or Annates. By the term we are to understand a year's revenue, or tax upon the revenue of the first year of a vacant benefice. As to the time when this practice began, it is observed that ever since the twelfth century, some Bishops or Abbots have either by custom or particular privilege received Annates of the benefices belonging to their patronage or jurisdiction. Thus, in the year 1126, Peter, Bishop of Beauvois, gave the canons regular of the church of St. Quintin, the Annates of all the prebends of his cathedral. The same grant was made in the same century to the canons regular of the abbey of St. Victor, by the Bishop and Chapter of Notre Dame at Paris. As to the payments of Annates to the Pope, we find by the remonstrance at Carlisle, it was altogether new and unprecedented. But the Court of Rome, which was almost always gaining upon the liberties of the Church, seldom gave over any project of interest. Thus Pope John XXII. secured the Annates of all vacant bene-

fices for three years together, bishopricks and abbeys only excepted. This was going upon the precedent of Clement V. (already mentioned.) The successors of John improved this advantage into a standing claim, and likewise hooked the Bishops and Abbots into the common servitude. Platina reports that Boniface IX. set this custom on foot, but then he was so favourable as not to charge the Annates any deeper than half the revenue of the first year. The payment of Annates has been all along grudged the Pope, and was warmly contested in the Council of Constance in 1414. Neither could the Court of Rome carry their point there, because the delegates of the French nation stood stiffly against this exaction. The Council of Basil likewise, held in 1431, forbade the payment of Annates by a decree of the 12th session. But then, at the same time, they ordered that the Pope should have a reasonable aid granted, to put him in a condition to manage the affairs of the Church, and support the Cardinals. The Council of Bourges, in 1438, approved the decree of the Synod of Basil against this payment. To which we might add it's being forbidden and put down by several edicts of the French king. As to England, the encroachment of the Court of Rome went on till the reign of Henry the Eighth." [Collyer's Ecclesiastical History.]

The following extracts from the authorities referred to, throw further light on the subject :

" First Fruits and Tenths were originally a part of the Papal usurpations over the Clergy of these kingdoms, first introduced by Pandulph the Pope's legate, during the reigns of king John and Henry the Third, in the See of Norwich, and afterwards attempted to be made universal, by the Popes Clement V. and John XXII. about the beginning of the fourteenth century. The First Fruits, Primitiæ, or Annates, were the first year's whole profits of the spiritual preferments, according to a rate or valor made under the direction of Pope Innocent IV. by Walter, Bishop of Norwich, in 38th Henry III. and afterwards advanced in value by commission from Pope Nicholas III. A. D. 1292, 20 Edward I. [Blackstone's Commentaries, vol. 1, page 284,] which valuation of Pope Nicholas is still preserved in the Exchequer." [3 Inst. 154.]

"In the 34th Edward I. at a Parliament held at Carlisle, great complaint was made of intolerable oppressions of Churches and Monasteries, by William Testa (called Mala Testa) and the legate of the Pope, and principally concerning First Fruits; at which Parliament the King, by the assent of his Barons, denied the payment of First Fruits of Spiritual promotions within England, which were founded by his progenitors and the nobles and others of the realm, for the service of God, alms, and hospitality. And to this effect he writ to the Pope, and thereupon the Pope relinquished his demand of First Fruits of Abbeyes: in which parliament the First Fruits for two years were granted to the King." [12 Co. 45.]

Complaints in Parliament of the oppression caused by the imposition of First Fruits.

"In 50th Edward III. the Commons complain, amongst other grievances, from the Court of Rome, that the Pope's collector that year (a thing never before done) had taken the First Fruits of every benefice whereof he had made provision or collation; whereas he was used to take First Fruits only of benefices vacant in the Court of Rome." [Degge, page 2, c. 15.]

Further Complaints.

First Fruits
gradually imposed by the See of Rome.

“ In truth, this tribute or revenue of First Fruits was gradually by little and little imposed by the Bishop of Rome, on such vacant benefices as himself conferred and bestowed ; and this was often complained of as a very great grievance ; so that in the Council at Vienna, Clement V. who was made Pope in the year 1305, forbad the receiving thereof, and ordered the same to be laid aside, and that the twentieth part of the sacerdotal revenues should, instead thereof, be annually paid to the Bishop of Rome ; but this not taking effect, the Pope so retained the said Annates to his exchequer, as that it long remained one of the most considerable parts of his revenue.” [God. Rep. 337.]

The reason alleged for the ex-action.

“ The reason alleged by the canonists for the exaction of these First Fruits by the Pope, was pro conservando decenti statu suo, ut qui omnium curam habet de communi alatur.” [God. Rep. Can. 337. See the case of First Fruits and Tenths, 12 Rep. 45.]

Ground of the Pope's claim to Tenths.

“ The Tenths the Pope (after the example of the High Priest among the Jews, who had of the Levites a tenth part of the tithes) claimed as due to himself by divine right. And this portion or tribute was by ordinance yielded to the Pope in the 20th Edward I. and a valuation then made of the ecclesiastical livings within this realm, to the end the Pope might know and be answered of that yearly revenue ; so as that the ecclesiastical livings chargeable with the Tenth (which was called spiritual) to the Pope, were not chargeable with the temporal Tenths or Fifteenths granted to the King in parliament, lest they should be doubly charged ; but their possessions, acquired after that taxation, were liable to the temporal Tenths or Fifteenths, because they were not charged to the other. So as the Tenths of ecclesiastical livings were not yielded to the Pope de jure after the example of the High Priest among the Jews, for then he should have had the Tenths of all ecclesiastical livings whensoever they were acquired; but he contented himself with what he had got, and never claimed more: and that he might the better keep and enjoy that which he had got, the Popes did often after grant the same for certain terms to divers of the Kings of England, as by our historians doth appear." [2 Inst. 627. 628.]

The Tenths often granted for terms by the Pope.

The Annexation of the Revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the Crown.

The claim of the Pope to this revenue, met from time to time with a vigorous resistance from the English Parliament, and a variety of acts were passed to prevent and restrain it, particularly the statute 6th Henry IV. But the Popish Clergy, devoted to the will of a foreign master, still kept it on foot; sometimes more secretly, at other times more openly and avowedly, so that in the reign of Henry VIII. it was computed that in the compass of 50 years, 800,000 ducats had been sent to Rome for First Fruits only. Upon the abolition of the Papal power in the same reign it was thought proper, as the Clergy had expressed this willingness to contribute so much of their income to the head of the Church, (which the King was then declared to be,) to annex this revenue to the Crown, which was accordingly effected by an Act of Parliament in the 26th of Henry VIII. chap. 3, intituled, "An Act concerning the payment of First Fruits of all Dignities, Benefices, and Promotions Spiritual, and also concerning one Annual Pension of the Tenth part of all the possessions of the Church, Spiritual and Temporal, granted to the King's Highness and his Heirs."

A new valuation made.

Commissioners were appointed by this Act in each diocese to make a new valor beneficiarum, by which the Clergy have ever since been, and at the present time are rated. This is commonly called the King's book, and a transcript of it is given in Ecton's The-saurus and in Bacon's Liber Regis.

Appropriation by Queen Anne of the Revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

First Fruits and Tenths relinquished by Queen Mary.

Resumed by Queen Elizabeth.

Appropriated by Queen Anne to augment Small Livings.

The First Fruits and Tenths were relinquished by the Crown, by an Act passed in the 1st and 2nd of Philip and Mary, chap. 4; but were again annexed thereto, by an Act passed in the 1st of Elizabeth, chap. 4, and from the time of passing the last mentioned Act, they continued to be part of the revenues of the Crown until the reign of Queen Anne, when her Majesty piously restored them to the Church, not indeed by remitting them entirely, but, in a spirit of the truest equity, by applying the First Fruits and Tenths arising from the larger benefices to make up in some degree the deficiencies of the smaller.

Bishop Burnet's recommendation of the measure in the former reign.

Bishop Burnet, as appears by the History of his Life, published by his son, had recommended to King William and Queen Mary the appropriation of the First Fruits and Tenths to the augmentations of small livings. In this History are set forth two memorials on the subject which the Bishop had presented to the King, in the years 1696 and 1697 ; and it is observed, that the Bishop renewed his solicitations upon this head so powerfully in the year 1701, that nothing but the death of King William could have prevented it's then taking effect.

The same Bishop, in his History of his own Time, treating of the appropriation by Queen Anne of the revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the augmentation of small livings, states (amongst other things) that, " During the session, and on her own birth-day, which was the 6th* of February, (1703-4,) the Queen sent a message to the House of Commons, signifying her purpose to apply that branch of the revenue that was raised out of the First Fruits and Tenths paid by the Clergy to the increase of all the small benefices in the nation. This branch was an imposition begun by the Popes, in the time of the holy wars, and it was raised as a fund to support those expeditions ; but when taxes are once raised by such an arbitrary power as the Popes then assumed, and after there has been a submission, and the payments have been settled into a custom, they are always continued, even after the pretence upon which they were at first raised subsists no more ; so this became a standing branch of the Papal revenue, till Henry the Eighth seemed resolved to take it away. It was at first abolished for a year, probably to draw in the Clergy to consent the more willingly to a change that delivered them from such heavy impositions : but in the succeeding session of Parliament this revenue was again settled as part of the income of the Crown for ever. It is true, it was the more easily borne, because the rates were still at the old value, and the Clergy had been often threatened with a new valuation, in which the rates should be rigorously set to their full extent. The Tenths amounted to about 11,000*l.* a year; and the First Fruits, which were more casual, rose one year with another to 5,000*l.* so the whole amounted to between 16,000*l.* and 17,000*l.* a year. This was not brought into the treasury as the other branches of the revenue; but the Bishops who had been the Pope's collectors, were now the King's, so persons in favour obtained assignations on them for life or for a term of years: this had never been applied to any good use, but was still obtained by favorites, for themselves and their friends. When I wrote the History of the Reformation I considered this matter so particularly, that I saw here was a proper fund for providing better subsistence to the poor Clergy, we having among us some hundreds of cures that have not, of certain provision, 20*l.* a year—and some thousands that have not 50*l.* I had possessed the late Queen (Mary) with this, so that she was fully resolved if ever she had lived to see peace and settlement, to have cleared this branch of the revenue of all the assignations which were upon it, and to have applied it to the augmentation of small benefices;—this is plainly insinuated in the Essay that I wrote in her Memory, some time after her death. I laid the matter before the late King (William) when there was a prospect of peace, as a proper expression both of his thankfulness to Almighty God and of his care of the Church; I hoped that this might have gained the heads of the Clergy; it might at least have put a stop to a groundless clamour raised against him, that he was an enemy to the Clergy, which began then to have a very ill effect on all his affairs. He entertained this so well, that he ordered me to speak to his ministers about it: they all approved it; the Lord Somers and the Lord Halifax did it in a most particular manner: but the Earl of Sunderland obtained an assignation upon two dioceses, for 2,000*l.* a year for two lives: so nothing was to be hoped for after that. I laid this matter very fully before the present Queen in the King's time, and had spoken often of it to Lord Godolphin. Upon the Queen's message, a Bill was brought in, enabling her to alienate this branch of the revenue, and to create a Corporation by charter, to apply it to the use for which she now gave it. The Bishops were so zealous and unanimous for the Bill, that it was carried and passed into a law." [Burnet's History of his own Time.]

Cunningham, in his History of Great Britain, vol. I. page 417, relates that a medal was this year struck on the occasion with the following inscription:

The following extract is taken from Bishop Kennett's case of Impropriations and of the Augmentation of Vicarages, &c. respecting the grant of the First Fruits and Tenths:

Extract from Bishop Kennett's case of impropriations as to the grant by the Queen.

"To make this act of royal bounty the more acceptable by the joyful season of it, on Monday, 7th February, (1703-4,) celebrated on account of her Majesty's auspicious birth, Mr. Secretary Hedges acquainted the House of Commons that he was commanded by her Majesty to deliver a Message in writing signed by her Majesty, and he presented the same to the House, and Mr. Speaker read the same, which is as followeth:

The Queen's Messag
to the House of Commons.

' ANNE R.

' Her Majesty having taken into her serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers parts of this kingdom, to give them some ease, hath been pleased to remit the arrears of the Tenth of the poor Clergy, and, for augmentation of their maintenance, her Majesty is pleased to declare that she will make a grant of her whole revenue arising out of First Fruits and Tenths, as far as it now is or shall become free from incumbrances, to be applied to this purpose;—and if the House of Commons can find any proper method by which her Majesty's good intentions to the poor Clergy may be made more effectual, it will be a great advantage to the public, and very acceptable to her Majesty.'

Address of the House
Commons.

" Upon reading this Message it was immediately Resolved, nemine contradicente, that ' An humble Address be presented to her Majesty expressing the most humble and hearty thanks of this House for her Majesty's most gracious Message, and the great and pious concern her Majesty has for the encreasing the maintenance of the poor Clergy out of her own revenue; and for her Majesty's goodness in remitting the arrears of Tenths to those who are poor: and withal to assure her Majesty that this House will, according to her Majesty's desire, do their utmost to make her Majesty's charitable intentions most effectual.'

" When the Commons attended the Queen with this Address, on February 11th, her Majesty was pleased to declare her royal satisfaction in these words:

' Gentlemen, I am very glad to find my Message has been so acceptable to you. I hope you will effectually improve it to the advantage of the Church by law established, for which nobody can have a more true and real concern than myself.'

[Kennett, 357 et seq.]

The Clergy of the two Provinces afterwards presented Addresses to her Majesty on the occasion, to which most gracious answers were given.

. The Act of Parliament to carry into effect the pious intentions of her Majesty Queen Anne, [which is set forth in the Appendix,] passed in Session 2 and 3 of her reign, chap. 11, intituled, " An Act for making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose;" whereby her Majesty was empowered to vest in trustees by her letters patent all the revenues of First Fruits and Tenths of all dignities, offices, benefices, and promotions spiritual whatever, to be applied and disposed of, to and for the purposes therein mentioned. And her Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 3d day of November, in the 3d year of her reign [also set forth in the Appendix] were accordingly granted; whereby the distinguished persons therein named, who then filled the highest offices in the Church and State, and the persons who thereafter should fill the same offices for the time being, were constituted a body politic and corporate of themselves in deed and in name, by the name of "the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy;" and by the same name they and their successors were thereby appointed to have perpetual succession, and to use a common seal, and the powers usually given to corporations were thereby granted to them; and the said Governors and their successors were by the said letters patent directed to receive, manage, govern, apply, and dispose of the royal bounty, and other gifts or benevolences which should or might thereafter be given or bequeathed to the said Corporation, where the donors thereof should not particularly direct the application thereof, to and for the increase of the maintenance of such parsons, vicars, curates, and ministers officiating in any Church or chapel within the kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as by law established, were and should be used and observed, for whom a maintenance was not already sufficiently provided.

The Proceedings of the Governors on the Establishment of the Corporation.

Having shewn in what manner the revenue of First Fruits and Tenths became vested in the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, it is in the next place intended to point out the early proceedings of the Governors in carrying into effect the trusts reposed in them.

When they entered upon their duty, the revenue which had been granted to them was found to be incumbered with annuities amounting altogether to the sum of 10,950*l*.: and with arrears of such annuities amounting to the sum of 21,000*l*.; the Governors, therefore, applied their funds immediately to the discharge of the arrears, and they succeeded in redeeming certain of the annuities.

The Governors found the revenue incumbered.

Which they proceeded to discharge.

The first general court holden by the Governors was at the Prince's chamber adjoining to the House of Lords, on the 14th December, 1704; where, in a full meeting, the said letters patent were read, and the officers appointed by the same, namely, the secretary and treasurer were sworn, and the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury was desired to wait on the Queen, and to beg of her Majesty the use of the new buildings joining to the Banqueting-house, Whitehall, for the meeting of the Governors, and for offices of the secretary, treasurer and their clerks; which her Majesty was graciously pleased to grant, and further to give directions, that the Lord Chamberlain would furnish those rooms out of the royal wardrobe for that purpose.

The next general court was accordingly held at the said buildings on the 11th January, 1704; and on the 22d of the said month, the draught of a seal was agreed upon, and it was ordered to be made of silver. The legend of the seal, is Gubern. Munif. Annæ Regi-næ Pauper. Cler.

In the said year 1706, a thousand copies of the charter were printed at the charge of the Governors, in order to publish the design of their constitution.

Certain
small livings discharged from First Fruits and Tenths.

About the same time (1706-7), the Governors addressed the Queen for leave to bring into parliament a bill, for discharging all livings with cure of souls (the Tenths of which were vested in the Corporation), not exceeding the true yearly value of 40*l.* from the payment of First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof for ever—this being an immediate advantage to those poor livings before any augmentation could be made; to which her Majesty was pleased to consent. And such a Bill being brought into the House of Commons was passed with an amendment of 50*l.* instead of 40*l.* The Act passed 5 and 6 Anne, chap. 24, and is intituled, “An Act for discharging small livings from their First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof.”

By Act 5th and 6th Anne.

In May 1707 the Archbishop of Canterbury informed the Governors, that the Queen had been pleased to give a further mark of her favor to the poor Clergy, by discharging a pension of 500*l.* per annum, payable to the keeper of the records in the Tower out of the First Fruits and Tenths.

The Queen discharged a pension of 500*l.* per annum.

Another Act passed in the 6th of Anne, chap. 27, intituled, “An Act to enlarge the time for returning the certificates of all ecclesiastical livings, not exceeding the yearly value of 50*l.*; and also for discharging all livings of that value from the payment of First Fruits, and for allowing time to Archbishops and Bishops and other dignitaries for payment of their First Fruits.”

Act 6th Anne, as to returning certificates of livings under 50*l.* per ann.

By virtue of this and the above-mentioned Act for discharging small livings, about 3,900 poor livings were discharged, and the revenue of Tenths, which when free from all incumbrances, was computed on an average of 20 years, to amount to about 13,000*l.* per annum, was reduced by this measure to about 10,000*l.* per annum.

3,900 small livings discharged from First Fruits and Tenths.

In January 1708 the Governors ordered the officers of the First Fruits to prepare a new book of First Fruits and Tenths, in which the livings that remained in charge were to be distinguished from the discharged—which book was prepared so soon as the Bishops had made the returns, and was delivered to the Governors.

New book of First Fruits and Tenths.

The Queen desired to know the proceedings of the Governors.

In July 1709 the Archbishop acquainted the Board, that the Queen had signified to him, her pleasure to know what the Governors had done ever since their establishment, with respect to the poor Clergy ; whereupon it was referred to a Committee to prepare a state of the affairs of the Corporation, in order to be laid before the Queen ; and in consequence, the following representation was made to her Majesty.

Representation to her Majesty by the Governors.

“ To the Queen’s most excellent Majesty,

The humble representation of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

“ In obedience to your Majesty’s commands signified to us at a general Court, holden in Whitehall on the 1st of July, 1709, by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury ; we, the Governors of your Majesty’s Bounty to the poor Clergy, humbly beg leave to represent to your Majesty, that after having made an inquiry into, and procured an exact list of all the livings in England and Wales, under 80*l.* per annum, from the Lords the Bishops of the respective dioceses, pursuant to the directions of your Majesty’s royal Charter, granted to us, and laid the same before your Majesty ; we have met in many general Courts, and Courts of Committees, to consider of, consult, advise, agree upon, and draw up proper and necessary rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions, for the better rule and government of our Corporation, and for receiving, accounting for, and managing all the revenues granted by your Majesty to us, and for the distributing, paying and disposing of the same, &c. ; and that having prepared and agreed upon some rules hereunto annexed, relating to the distribution of your Majesty's said bounty ; we humbly beg leave to lay them before you for your Majesty's royal approbation.

“ We have also considered of the state of the revenue of the First Fruits and Tenths, which your Majesty has been most graciously pleased to vest in us for the benefit of the poor Clergy ; the state of which revenue, soon after opening our commission, appeared thus :

“ The First Fruits and Tenths computed at a medium of twenty years, do amount one year with another to about 17,000*l.* per annum ; but we found the said First Fruits and Tenths charged with grants and pensions (several of them for life) to the value of about 11,000*l.* per annum, and with an arrear of the same, amounting to about 21,000*l.* ; all which arrear we have been discharging till very lately, and have also bought off the Lady Waldegrave's pension of 1000*l.* per annum, granted unto her for a term of years ; which, with the 500*l.* per annum, payable to the late Mr. Petyt, (which your Majesty was graciously pleased to discharge,) reduces our yearly payments to 9,500*l.*, or thereabouts.

“ As we found the revenue incumbered with the aforesaid grants, and arrears thereof on the one hand, so we likewise found on the other, that there was a very great sum of money due from the Clergy, and their predecessors, at the time of your Majesty's vesting the same in this Corporation ; we have, therefore, spent much time in our inquiry after the same, and in distinguishing between the sperate and the desperate debts of the Clergy ; and it appeared to us, that almost all the sums of money due from the predecessors of the present dignified Clergy and incumbents of livings were of the latter sort.

“ Wherefore being extremely sensible, how heavy the burden of the said debts has lain upon the poor Clergy, upon the account of which many persons have refused to take institutions of their livings, lest they should be obnoxious to the great debts contracted by several of their predecessors, and thereby ruin themselves and families; and we being no less sensible how great the expectation of the world has been (ever since our incorporation,) and especially of the poor Clergy, to see and taste some of the happy fruits of your Majesty's unparalleled Bounty to the Church; we thought we could not better consult your Majesty's honor, nor answer the ends of our establishment and trust, than by finding out some expedient for the present ease and relief of the poorest of the Clergy; and perceiving that the revenue, and the debts and incumbrances thereupon, bore so near a proportion to each other, that little or nothing could be spared from thence to be distributed among the incumbents of the smallest livings, the only method remaining was by way of augmentation, to discharge all livings of such a value, from the payment of First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof for ever; and accordingly we most humbly applied for, and obtained your Majesty's gracious permission, to bring into Parliament a Bill or Bills, for the discharging small livings from the payment of Tenths and First Fruits—and this hath been the work of two or three winters last past; and we find that out of near 10,000 benefices in England and Wales, about 4,000 are now discharged, by virtue of the late Acts of Parliament made for that purpose, and that in consequence of the said discharge, the yearly revenue of Tenths only, which before did amount to about 12,500*l.*, is now sunk to about 9,500*l.*; and the revenue of First Fruits is also fallen proportionably to the number of livings returned to be under the improved yearly value of 50*l.* which pay First Fruits:—and to the end that we might render the remaining part of your Majesty's Bounty as effectual as possible, for your most gracious purposes, we have frequently ordered prosecutions in your Majesty's Court of Exchequer against all persons whatsoever that are in arrear for their First Fruits or Tenths, and several are now actually under prosecutions; but it having been represented to us by the officers of your Majesty's Exchequer, that they would not send out process against the incumbents of any livings till they had distinguished, by the Bishops' returns, which were chargeable, and which not; nor could the Bishops execute such process till new books of Tenths were made, and new rolls of livings chargeable with Tenths sent down to them. We desired the Barons of your Majesty's Exchequer, to give the necessary orders to the officers of the First Fruits, to prepare a new book of Tenths, which has been the whole business of the last year; and till that was done, we have been obliged to stop process against all incumbents of livings with cure of souls; but we actually prosecuted and recovered several sums of money from several Dignitaries of the Church, or their executors.

“ We have also from time to time received several proposals for the improving and rendering more effectual your Majesty's great charity to the Clergy, and the same are now under consideration; but upon this occasion we humbly beg leave to represent to your Majesty, that the obligation we lie under by our constitution of holding no Court without the assistance of a Bishop, a Privy Counsellor, and a Judge, or Queen's Council, has so often put a stop to our doing any business; either in winter, when your Majesty's service in Parliament, Councils, or Courts of Justice, requires their attendance; or in summer, when the Lords the Bishops are visiting their respective dioceses, and the Judges in their circuits, and your Majesty's Court and Council removed from town; that we most earnestly beseech your Majesty to allow us to consider of, and propose to your Majesty some proper methods to obviate those, and other inconveniences of our present constitution. By order of the Governors,

JOHN CHAMBERLAYNE,
Secretary."

January 19, 1709-10.

(L.S.)

Application to the Queen for a further Charter.

In March 1711, the Lord Archbishop of York was desired to represent to the Queen the inconveniences resulting from the present quorum of the Governors; namely, a Bishop, a Judge, and a Privy Counsellor, who must always be part of every Court, and the want of a new Charter on other accounts, which matters the Queen referred to the Attorney-general.

2d Charter.

Rules and Orders for the distribution of the Queen's Bounty were settled and agreed to by the Corporation; and being laid before Queen Anne, for her approbation, were afterwards confirmed by Her Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 5th day of March, 1712; called the Second Charter.

The rules are twenty in number, and are declared by her Majesty to be the rules, methods, directions, orders and constitutions, by which the Governors of the said Corporation, and their successors, should receive, manage, govern, apply and dispose the Royal Bounty, and other gifts and benevolences in the said letters patent mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Charter, and of the said letters patent. Reserving nevertheless to her Majesty, her heirs and successors, full and absolute power and authority from time to time, and at all times thereafter under the great seal, * to make any alterations in the said several and respective orders; and to give and make in like manner such other orders, rules and directions, for and concerning the better government of the said Corporation; and for the managing, governing, applying and disposing of the Royal Bounty to them granted; and for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the true intention of the letters patent of incorporation as to her Majesty and her successors should seem meet.

Rules contained in 2d Charter.

The second charter and the new rules from time to time made by the Crown, altering and extending the rules contained in the 2d charter and for enlarging the powers of the Governors are severally set forth in the Appendix.

2d Charter and new Rules, &c. set forth in Appendix.

In the year 1713, the Secretary was ordered to prepare two lists of small livings, in order to their being augmented. The first, of such as did not exceed 10*l.* per annum, to which, according to the rules contained

Lists of Livings under 10*l.* and 35*l.* per Annum.

* By the Act 1 Geo. I. chap. 10, sec. 3, new rules and orders under the Royal sign manual are declared to be as good valid and effectual as if made or established under the great seal.

in the second charter, two-thirds of the yearly income at that time were to be appropriated. And the second of livings not exceeding 35*l.* per annum, that being then the value of livings to be augmented in conjunction with private benefactions.

New Charter published.

At the latter end of this year (1713) the new charter and rules were laid before the Board, and 500 copies of the Charter, and 10,000 copies of the rules were directed to be printed, in order to be distributed among the Clergy and others, and the rules were published in the Gazette.

20th March 1713, 1st Distribution of the Royal Bounty ordered.

To this time, by reason of the incumbrances upon the revenue, very little each year, remained clear to be disposed of by the Governors; but now by degrees a competent sum being provided, on the 20th March, 1713, the Governors resolved upon the first distribution of the Queen's Bounty to the Poor Clergy, and ordered public notice to be given, that there was the sum of 5,600*l.* to be distributed in 28 shares of 200*l.* each, according to the rules of the Corporation; and the said rules were ordered to be again published in the London Gazette.

List of Crown Livings under 10*l.* per annum.

The Governors did at the same time direct, that a list of all such livings in the gift of the Crown, as did not exceed 10*l.* per annum should be procured, to the end they might have the preference of augmentation; pursuant to a rule contained in the second charter, which list was prepared and brought in accordingly.

Act 1. G. I. ch. 10. (set forth in Appendix.)

At the beginning of the year 1714, Lord Chief Justice Parker (afterwards Lord Chancellor) laid before the board the draft of a new Bill, which afterwards passed into an Act 1 Geo. I. chap. 10, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for augmenting the maintenance of the Poor Clergy." This Act is set forth in the Appendix, as is also an Act for enlarging the powers of the Governors, which passed 44 Geo. III. chap. 107,—intituled, "An Act for effectuating certain parts of an Act passed in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenue of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose, so far as the same relate to deeds and wills made for granting and bequeathing lands, tene-ments, hereditaments, goods and chattels, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the purposes in the said Act mentioned; and for enlarging the powers of the said Governors." And in the Appendix, another Act is introduced, viz. "An Act passed 45 Geo. III. chap. 84.—intituled, "An Act for making more effectual the gracious intentions of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, so far as relates to the returns of certificates into the Exchequer and gifts of personal property."

Act 43.G. 3
ch. 107.
(set forth in Appendix.)

Act 45.G. 3.
ch. 84. (set forth in Appendix.)

The collection of the Tenths under the system adopted before the grant of them to the Governors having been found to be badly contrived, the Governors for some years after their incorporation, suffered much consequent inconvenience and loss; and they were much employed in devising means to correct the evil, and at length they obtained an Act of Parliament, by the Governors.

After the heavy incumbrances of the annuities charged on the revenues of the Clergy were removed, and after the new regulations for the better collection of the Tenths had been acted upon, the Governors proceeded by virtue of the Charters and Acts of Parliament by slow degrees, with as much effect as their funds permitted, to augment small livings, according to the rules prescribed in the second Charter. But since the munificent grants have been made by Parliament, eleven in number of 100,000*l.* each; the first of which was voted in 1809, to be applied by the Governors for the same purposes as the Royal Bounty; the augmentation of small livings, especially those of large population, has been effected in a most extensive manner; as will appear by the account of augmentations which is set forth in the Appendix.

Advantages to the Clergy and to the Public.

The greatest benefit has been conferred on the Church by this Corporation, in the way of increase to the incomes of the Clergy of the poorest class of livings in this kingdom, particularly since the large means placed at the disposal of the Governors by Parliament has enabled them to augment to a considerable amount, livings containing a large population;

the advantage to the community has been in proportion, for the Governors have taken care to recommend where augmentations were made by them, that increased duty in cases requiring and admitting it, should be performed. The residence of the Clergy has been also promoted by the proceedings of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, as well by advances of money made by them to incumbents on mortgage of their livings, as by their applying money appropriated for the benefit of particular livings, in defraying the expences of purchasing buildings, or improving houses for the residence of the incumbents thereof. The Acts of Parliament enabling the Governors to make such loans and so to apply appropriated money are hereinafter referred to, and instructions are given in what manner incumbents are to proceed, who are desirous to avail themselves of the powers thereby given.

ceed 10*l.* per annum.

By the fourth rule the Governors were authorized, The 4th
Rule.

in order to encourage benefactions, to give the sum of 200*l.* to Cures not exceeding 35*l.* per annum, where any persons would give the same sum, or a greater sum or value in lands or tithes.

The two last extended.

The two last rules have from time to time been extended, as livings have gradually become augmented to a higher amount.

The 11th Rule.

By the eleventh rule the mode of augmentation of Livings to be augmented, otherwise than by benefaction, is prescribed to be by lot.

Rule 32d March, 1824.

The Governors may augment Livings by lot up to 60*l.* per annum. And by Rule 14th June, 1820, they may meet Benefactions to Livings under 200*l.* per annum out of the Royal Bounty.

The Governors are at the present time enabled by rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 22nd of March, 1824, to augment by lot out of the Royal Bounty Fund, those cures which are fitly qualified, and do not exceed 60*l.* per annum. And by rule also under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are enabled to give a sum of 200*l.* from the same fund, to cures not exceeding 200*l.* per annum; where any person or persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give 200*l.* or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof, in land or tithes, or a clear yearly rent-charge or annuity of 15*l.*

The New Returns in 1809, of Livings under 150*l.* per annum. And Supplemental Returns.

In the year 1809 returns to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty were made by the Archbishops and Bishops of the several dioceses in England and Wales, of the yearly value of all benefices and cures not exceeding 150*l.* per annum; and subsequently, whenever a Bishop has discovered that any benefice or cure within his diocese, not exceeding the said yearly value, was not included in the said returns, it has been and now is the practice of such Bishop, either without reference to the Bounty Office, to issue queries respecting any such benefice or cure, and on receiving answers to such queries to make to the Governors a supplemental return under his hand and episcopal seal of the yearly value thereof; or to apply in the first instance to the Secretary to the Governors, to issue a special commission of enquiry as to the yearly value, and other circumstances of any such benefice or cure directed to three beneficed Clergymen and three laymen, (usually recommended to the Bishop by the Incumbent,) and for the Bishop, on the receipt of the answers to such commission, to make a return of the yearly value to the Governors.

The returns so made by the Bishops in 1809, and the supplemental returns since made, are called the New Returns, and are the main foundation of, and have been always referred to in making the augmentations which have been since granted by the Governors.

Nearly all such benefices or cures which by the new returns were certified not to exceed 50*l.* per annum, as were by the Governors found to be fitly qualified to be augmented, (to judge of which qualification queries were in every case issued as to the annual value, duty, and other particulars, and the answers thereto duly considered by the Governors,) have been lately augmented to that amount without lot by virtue of the before-mentioned rule under the Royal sign manual, dated the 22d day of March, 1824.

Living
augmented up to 50*l.*
per annum without lot.

The mode of augmenting them to such amount adopted by the Governors, was by giving to every living not exceeding that annual value according to the new returns so many sums of 200*l.* each, as reckoning the interest thereof at 4*l.* per cent. raised the same to that amount. The Governors reckoned the rate of

Mode of augmenting them.

interest at 4*l.* per cent. (although they only allow 2*l.* per cent.) because they expect each 100*l.* to produce 4*l.* per cent. or thereabouts, when laid out in the purchase of land, according to the second rule.

If under 50*l.* per annum raised to that amount.

If the Governors found by the answers to the queries issued before the augmentation of a cure that its yearly value had been by any means increased since the date of the new returns, but that it still did not amount to 50*l.* they gave to it so many lots as carried it up to 50*l.* per annum.

The Governors do not give less than 200*l.* which sum is called a lot.

The Governors do not in any of their augmentations give a less sum than 200*l.* and where more is required either on account of value out of the Royal Bounty, or on account of population out of the Parliamentary Grants, they give so many more sums, or lots as they are called, (whether there be an actual drawing of lots or not,) of 200*l.* as the particular case may require. This is to the advantage of many cures; for instance, if a cure had been found to be of the value of 41*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* two lots or sums of 200*l.* have been given to carry it up to 57*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* because one lot would have left it still under 50*l.* viz. 49*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

If value of a Living reduced since the new return.

If the Governors found by the answers to the before-mentioned queries respecting a cure, that its yearly value had decreased since the new returns, they nevertheless adopted the value stated in the new returns, that being their general practice, and this rule governing them in all cases, equal justice was rendered to all livings of the same scale, as the cause of such reduction in value, generally speaking, may be fairly supposed to apply nearly the same to all of them.

Queries issued before augmentation.

Queries as to the duty, annual value, and other particulars, are always issued before the augmentation of a living by the Governors by benefaction, lot, or on account of population, and as well out of the Royal Bounty Fund as the Parliamentary Grant Fund.

The Governors, pursuant to the before-mentioned rule under the Royal sign manual, dated the 23d day of March, 1824, are now proceeding to augment to 60*l.* per annum, by means of the Royal Bounty Fund, by lot, all livings which in the new returns are certified as not exceeding, and which do not exceed that yearly value; and to meet benefactions of 200*l.* or the value thereof in lands, or tithes, or rent-charges of 15*l.* per annum, with 200*l.* out of the same fund, where the annual value of livings to which such benefactions are given, do not exceed 200*l.* per annum.

The Governors now engaged in augmenting livings under 60*l.* per annum to that amount by lot.

And in meeting Benefactions where livings under 200*l.* per annum.

Mode of augmenting livings by lot or by benefaction.

The proceedings of the Governors, as before described, in augmenting Livings up to 50*l.* per annum, will sufficiently shew how the value of livings now to be augmented by lot is to be ascertained. And as to benefactions, whenever an incumbent of a living under 200*l.* per annum, has one or more to propose in order to obtain a corresponding sum or sums out of the Royal Bounty, or 300*l.* for each 200*l.* out of the Parliamentary Grants; his course is to follow the directions contained in another part of this work which treats of benefactions.

An account of the augmentations made by the Governors out of the Royal Bounty Fund is set forth in the Appendix.

In the year 1809, in pursuance of the most gracious message of his late Majesty King George the Third to both Houses of Parliament, the sum of 100,000*l.* was granted by Parliament, and included in the appropriation act in aid of the Fund already vested in the Governors of the Royal Bounty by Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the rules and regulations by which the funds of the Corporation are governed ; and since that period, the Parliament, prompted by the same public spirit, have munificently granted to the Governors in aid of the same Fund, the sum of 100,000*l.* in each of the following years, viz. 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814, 1815, 1816, 1818, 1819 ; and in 1820, (in pursuance of the most gracious message of his Majesty King George the Fourth,) which together with that granted in 1809, make up the sum of 1,100,000*l.*

The first sum of 100,000*l.* or the greatest part of it, was disposed of by the Governors in augmenting, by lot, livings of inferior value, without reference to the amount of population, and in meeting benefactions of 200*l.* with 300*l.* in pursuance of a rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 23rd day of June, 1810. Augmentations out of the Parliamentary Grants, on account of population, were first made by the Governors in pursuance of a rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 13th day of May, 1811; by which they were enabled to give a preference to livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding 150*l.* per annum, the population of which amounted to, or exceeded 1000 persons.

By a rule under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 25th day of May, 1813, the Governors were in like manner enabled to give a preference to such Livings, the population of which amounted to, or exceeded 800 persons.

Livings to be preferred having 800 inhabitants or more.

By a rule under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 14th day of May, 1814, the Governors were enabled to give a preference in their augmentations from Parliamentary Grants only to Livings fitly qualified and not exceeding 150*l.* per annum, according to the new returns, the population of which amounted to, or exceeded 500 persons.

Livings to be preferred for augmenting out of Grants by Parliament having a Population of 500 or upwards, not exceeding 150*l.* per annum.

The Governors have appropriated the Parliamentary Grants; except such part of the first Grant as was disposed of in augmenting by lot Livings of inferior value, (without reference to population as before-mentioned,) in meeting benefactions of 200*l.* each, or land or tithes of that value, or stipends of 15*l.* each, with corresponding sums of 300*l.* each, and in augmenting Livings of large population.

Appropriation of the Parliamentary Grants.

By a subsequent rule under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are further enabled out of the Parliamentary Grants to augment Livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding 200*l.* per annum, according to the new returns, the population of which exceeds 300 persons.

According to the present private regulations of the Governors, made on the 17th day of June, 1816, founded on the rule of the 14th day of May, 1814; the Governors have, in all cases where application has been made to them, augmented livings found by them to be fitly qualified, and which had been certified to them as of less annual value than 150*l.* up to that amount, (or rather to that nominal amount, as the Governors in their augmentations on account of population, although they allow interest at the rate of 4*l.* per cent., reckon them as yielding 5*l.* per cent. per annum) where the population amounted to 5,000 persons.

pulation of

And all livings of less annual value than 120*l.* to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 2,000 persons.

With 1,000

per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 110*l.* to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 1,000 persons.

With 500
to 100*l.* per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 100*l.* to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 500 persons ; and the Governors are now proceeding to augment according to the said scale all livings entitled thereto, and which, for whatever reason, have been omitted to be brought under their consideration. They have not yet proceeded to augment on account of population livings above the annual value of 150*l.*, nor where the number of inhabitants is less than 500, for want of funds, though warranted by the before-mentioned rule of the 14th day of June, 1820, so to augment livings not exceeding 200*l.* per annum, the population of which amounts to or exceeds 300 persons.

It has been objected to the proceedings of the Governors by those who appear to have been but little acquainted with them, that their augmentations have been altogether by lot, and that no preference has been given to livings of large population : this certainly has been the course with regard to the appropriation of the Royal Bounty Fund, where the distribution has been by lot, according to the 11th rule in the 2d Charter ; but it must be considered that for many years the annual revenue was exhausted in bringing up poor livings to the annual value of 10*l.*; and that now after a lapse of upwards of a century it has taken all the annual revenue of the Royal Bounty, besides benefactions, assisted also in a considerable degree by the Parliamentary grants, to raise all the poor livings in England and Wales which have been brought under their consideration, and which have been found fitly qualified to be augmented, to the nominal annual value of 50*l.* and this, indeed, has only very recently been accomplished. So far this appropriation by lot seems to be more equitable than any other plan ; for where the income of livings falls short of a sufficiency to supply to Incumbents the actual means of subsistence, it is equally necessary to increase the income of the Incumbents of the less as of the more populous parishes. But it is to be observed, that soon after the liberality of Parliament had added so largely to the funds of the Corporation, the Governors, with the Royal sanction, applied these Parliamentary grants to the meeting of benefactions, and to the exclusive augmentation of the income of the Incumbents of populous parishes, leaving the Royal Bounty Fund to supply, as in former times, the means of gradual improvement of the income of the Incumbents of the small parishes ; and with so much the more effect and expedition as, by the operation of the Parliamentary grant fund, both in meeting benefactions, and in augmentations on account of population, very many livings were taken from the list of those which would otherwise have remained to be augmented out of the Royal Bounty.

The whole of the grants by Parliament have been appropriated in augmenting livings, as shewn in Appendix.

Observations as to the funded property and securities held by the Governors.

The whole of the 1,100,000*l.* granted by Parliament to the Governors, and the greatest part of the interest accumulated on the parts thereof from time to time unappropriated, have been exhausted in making the augmentations which are set forth in the account in the Appendix.

And here it may not be improper to remark, that almost all the funded property and other securities possessed by the Governors, from whatsoever source arising, have been appropriated to poor livings, and interest on the sums appropriated to each living is payable half yearly to the incumbents thereof, subject as to the interest on augmentations out of the Parliamentary grants, to the condition of their residence or performance of duty, and will continue to be paid until such appropriated sums shall be invested in the purchase of lands or tythes, or in some other authorised manner, for the benefit of the respective livings:—and it is also to be observed, that the remainder of such funded property and securities, and the accruing income arising from First Fruits and Tenths, and surplus dividends, and interest, and from other contingent sources, will be from time to time appropriated by the Governors by lot or on account of population, or to meet benefactions according to the rules established for the administration of the trusts reposed in them. The Governors are ever anxious to make such appropriations, and they only reserve from time to time so much of their capital unappropriated, as will secure to all livings the payment of the monies granted to them, when the same shall be called for, to be invested in purchases or otherwise. The reservation of some part of their capital is obviously necessary, because as the chief part thereof is invested in bank annuities, and their augmentations are made of specific sums of money, a fall in the price of bank annuities might render the Governors unable to meet all the demands which might be brought against them, unless they exercised caution and discretion in reserving a sufficient portion of their capital unappropriated as a protecting fund.

The mode adopted by the Governors for augmenting livings on account of population, according to their regulations of the 17th day of June, 1816, is as follows :

If the living of B—, for instance, certified in the new returns, as of the annual value of 45*l.* appears by the printed account of the census of the population taken in 1821, to contain 5,000 inhabitants, or, in case the population cannot be clearly made out by that account, if it appears by the affidavit of the Churchwarden or other parish-officer sworn before a Magistrate, that by actual enumeration he has ascertained the number of inhabitants to be 5,000, or upwards, queries are issued from the Bounty office, to enquire into the duty, annual value, and other circumstances of the living, in the same form as those used previous to augmentations out of the Royal Bounty. The answers to these queries are laid before the Board; and if it shall appear that the living B.—, so certified at 45*l.*

The present practice of augmenting livings on account of population.

per annum, has not been since in any manner augmented to the annual value of 150*l.*, the Governors grant so many lots or sums of 200*l.*, as, reckoning each lot or sum to produce 10*l.* per annum, will raise it to that amount.

If the Governors find, by the answers to the queries, the yearly value to be less at the time of making them than that certified by the new returns, they nevertheless adopt the value in the new returns; but if they find the yearly value to be greater by the answers to the queries than that certified in the new returns, they adopt such greater value, in the same manner as has been before noticed in treating on augmentations by means of the Royal Bounty Fund.

An account of all the augmentations made by the Governors out of the Parliamentary grants is set forth in the Appendix.

By a rule under his present Majesty's royal sign manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are enabled to give a sum of 200*l.* from their original Fund, or 300*l.* from the said additional Fund, to cures not exceeding the yearly value of 200*l.* fixed and certain, where any person or persons in order to obtain the Bounty will give 200*l.*, or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tythes, or a clear yearly * rent charge or annuity of 15*l.*

Whenever a benefaction of 200*l.*, or several benefactions each of that amount, or the value thereof in land or tythes, or of one rent-charge of 15*l.*, or by several rent-charges each of that amount, is or are intended to be given to obtain a sum of 200*l.*, or a corresponding number of sums of 200*l.* each from the original or Bounty Fund, or a sum of 300*l.*, or a corresponding number of sums of 300*l.* each from the additional or Parliamentary Grant Fund, to augment a living under 200*l.* per annum, intimation thereof, with full particulars, is to be given to the Governors' Secretary, and thereupon queries will be issued similar to those used before the augmentation of livings drawn by lot or on account of population, as to the value, population, duty, and other circumstances relating to the living. When the queries are answered and returned to the Bounty Office, it is the business of the Secretary to lay the same before the Governors, whose decision thereon is immediately afterwards communicated to the Incumbent. If they agree to meet the benefaction or benefactions of money, the Incumbent is directed to cause the same to be paid to their Treasurer, upon which being done, the Governors will at their next Board appropriate 200*l.* out of the original Fund, or 300*l.* out of the additional Fund, in respect of each benefaction of 200*l.*; and if the Governors agree to

If the return to the commission proves to the Governors that the estate proposed to be given is of the value represented, and is in all respects eligible, the same is approved, of which the Incumbent is informed, and the Secretary then sends the commission with the return thereto, to the Solicitors of the Governors, whose duty it is (at the expence of the Corporation) to examine into the title, and if that is found good, to prepare the benefaction deed.

And if the Governors agree to meet the benefaction of a rent-charge of 15*l.*, the Incumbent is informed thereof, and is referred to the Governors' Solicitor for further directions, whose duty it is to see that the same be properly secured. When the deeds, conveying the estate or securing the rent-charge given by way of benefaction, are completed, or the lease securing the rent charge is produced, the sum agreed to be given to meet the benefaction is directed to be appropriated to the living.

It is to be observed that the Governors do not in any case meet a less benefaction than 200*l.*, or the value thereof in lands or tythes; nor a rent-charge of less annual amount than 15*l.*; nor in case a sum between 200*l.* and 400*l.*, or a rent charge between 15*l.* and 30*l.* is offered, will they meet the same with a larger sum than if only 200*l.*, or a rent charge of 15*l.* was offered. Each separate sum of 200*l.*, or a rent charge of 15*l.*, is a separate benefaction, and may be met, if the living is fitly qualified as to population and other circumstances, with the sum of 200*l.* out of the original Fund, or 300*l.* out of the additional Fund, until the living be augmented to the amount of 200*l.* per annum. Some incumbents who do not reside or perform their own duty prefer to have a benefaction met with 200*l.* out of the Royal Bounty, rather than with 300*l.* out of the Parliamentary grants; because in the one case they receive 2 per cent. interest, although they do not reside or perform their own duty; but in the other case, interest, (which is at the rate of 4*l.* per cent.) is allowed to those only who do reside or perform their own duty. A separate account of benefactions, given to the Governors from the time of the establishment of the Corporation, to the end of the year 1825, with the names of the benefactors, is given in the Appendix.

livings.

Where an Incumbent resides for the space of nine months in a year, ending on the 31st day of December, partly on one and partly on some other living, and not less than four months on each, he will be entitled to the interest from the Parliamentary grants on the living which may happen to be augmented out of that fund. In such a case the interest will be paid yearly at Lady-day on a receipt being sent, all in the incumbent's hand-writing, with a certificate to the Treasurer, according to the following form :

To be signed and countersigned as the before-mentioned form.

The Governors allow the Treasurer to pay to licenced Curates serving vacant cures under sequestration, which have been augmented out of the Parliamentary grants, interest on such augmentations, provided they severally produce, on their first application to him, a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese of his approval of such payment of interest : and on production whenever application is made for payment of such interest by every such Curate, of a certificate of his constant performance of duty, and residence either in the parish or chapelry, or within five miles of his church or chapel, signed by two Clergymen of the diocese, and countersigned by their diocesan.

Livings under sequestration augmented out of Parliamentary grants, interest to be paid to sequestrators.

o Note.—Mr. Paterson the Treasurer, (who is directed not to pay interest, except on the receipt or order in writing of the Incumbent for every sum to be received,) attends daily at his office, No. 68, Old Broad-street, to pay interest from Lady-day to Midsummer, and from Michaelmas to Christmas, (holidays excepted) between the hours of ten and two.

Purchases of Houses, Lands, or Tythes, with Monies appropriated to Livings.

1st rule, 2d charter.

The first rule in the second charter prescribes, “ That the augmentation to be made by the Corporation shall be by way of purchase, and not by the way of pension.”

Governors desirous to invest augmentation money in land.

The Governors have ever been anxious to observe to the letter this main regulation, and they have from time to time taken measures accordingly; such as reducing the rate of interest allowed to Incumbents in respect of augmentations which have fallen to their livings, to induce them to be diligent in looking out for suitable purchases. The Governors allow of purchases of houses for residence, and also farm-houses, and lands of freehold tenure, or copyhold, where the fine is certain, and the lord of the manor consents to the admission of the Incumbent, and of purchases of tythes. The first desire of the Governors where there is no house of residence for the Incumbent of a living, is, to invest money appropriated to such living in the purchase of a house, or of land conveniently situated whereon a house may be built. They are desirous that purchases to be made of lands should, if possible, be convenient for the Incumbent's occupation; but if that is not practicable, it is their wish that lands should be purchased so near to the livings as that the Incumbents may without inconvenience superintend the occupation thereof by their tenants. There is no prescribed rate of interest, nor is there any defined general rule laid down by the Governors with regard to purchases, further than what has been remarked as to purchases of houses of residence and scites, and of lands situate near the livings for which they are intended; but the Governors decide, after mature consideration, on each separate proposal for a purchase according to its own circumstances and merits.

General remarks as to purchases.

In order to obtain full information respecting estates proposed to be purchased, a commission is issued with special queries annexed, addressed to commissioners as aftermentioned, requesting them to make enquiry as to the proposed purchase, and to return specific answers to the queries. Whenever such answers are returned to the Bounty Office, they are laid before the Board, and according as they are deemed satisfactory or otherwise, the purchases either receive the sanction of, or are disapproved by the Governors.

When a purchase is proposed, a commission of enquiry is issued.

When an Incumbent wishes to offer a purchase to the Governors, it is necessary for him to send the particulars thereof to their Secretary, and to state the amount of money remaining appropriated to his living, and to propose the names of three beneficed Clergymen of the diocese; adding the names of their benefices, and the names and places of residence, and descriptions of three neighbouring laymen of respectability, to be inserted by the Bishop of the diocese, if he approves, in a commission of enquiry.

In case the proposed purchase is disapproved by the Governors, the Incumbent is informed thereof by the Secretary.

If approved.

If it is approved, the Secretary sends the commission with the returns thereto, and the correspondence, to the Solicitor of the Governors, who then sends all necessary instructions to the Incumbent. The Solicitor, assisted by the Governors' Counsel, and at the expense of the Corporation, examines into the title, and if that proves satisfactory, he prepares the conveyance of the purchased estate, also at the Governors' expense, unto and to the use of the Incumbent of the living for which the purchase is made, and his successors.

Exchanges of Houses and Lands belonging to Augmented Livings, whether purchased with Bounty money or not, for other Houses or Lands.

Act 1 Geo. I.
ch. 10. authorizes exchanges of land bought by the Governors.

By the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, passed in the 1st year of the reign of his Majesty King George the First, chap. 10. (sec. 13.) it is enacted as follows: "And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful, with the concurrence of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, and the Incumbent, Patron, and Ordinary of any augmented living or cure, to exchange all or any part of the estate settled for the augmentation thereof for any other estate, in lands or tythes of equal or greater value to be conveyed to the same uses."

And by the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, passed in the 43rd year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 107. (sec. 2.) it is (after reciting the above clause) enacted, "that the said power shall be and is hereby extended to all the messuages, buildings and lands, belonging to every augmented living or cure."

Act 43.G.3. c. 107. extends the power of exchange to all lands belonging to augmented livings.

The Governors are disposed to sanction exchanges of houses or lands in those cases where permanent advantage or convenience is afforded to Incumbents and their successors; and especially where proposed exchanges may conduce to enable them to reside on their benefices, by their obtaining houses or lands more convenient for their occupation, but they frequently object to exchanges where no particular advantage in point of annual value or greater convenience is likely to result from the measure.

The Governors disposed to approve exchanges likely to afford permanent advantage; or which conduce to the residence of Incumbents.

When an Incumbent wishes to propose an exchange of a house or land to the Governors, it is expedient that he first obtain the consent of the Patron and Ordinary to the measure, as they are necessary parties to the deeds of exchange to be executed, if the proposal be approved; and then it is necessary for him to give to the Secretary of the Governors, accurate particulars of the respective estates to be exchanged; and to propose the names of three beneficed clergymen of the diocese in which his living is situate, and of three laymen of respectability, to be inserted in a commission of enquiry to be issued, authorising them to view the two estates, and requiring them to return specific answers to the queries annexed to the commission, both as to the Church estate and the estate to be received in exchange for the same distinctly. The commission and queries are nearly in the same form as those used in enquiries as to the proposed purchases.

Instructions if exchange approved.

The Governors, in case the answers of the commissioners to the queries are satisfactory, approve the exchange, of which the Incumbent is immediately informed by the Secretary, and the papers are then forwarded to the Governors' Solicitor, to whom the Incumbent is then referred for all further necessary directions for completing the business, and it is then the duty of the Solicitor (at the cost of the parties proposing the exchange, who are required to sign an undertaking to pay all the costs and expences which may attend it,) to inspect the title to the house or land to be given in exchange, and to prepare the necessary deeds.

Expences
of exchanges not paid by Governors.

As the Governors bear no part of the expences attending exchanges, which are considerable; Incumbents should be careful to stipulate, if they can, that the expences of the Surveyor, and the law expences, or at least a moiety thereof, be paid by the parties with whom they exchange.

Loans of Money advanced on Mortgage to Incumbents, by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty; to enable them to Build, Rebuild, Improve, or Repair Parsonage Houses and Offices.

An Act was passed in the 17th year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 53, intituled, "An Act to promote the residence of the parochial Clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing, or purchasing houses and other necessary buildings and tenements for the use of their benefices." This Act was explained and amended by another Act passed in the 21st year of the reign of his said late Majesty, chap. 66, which Acts are well known by the name of Gilbert's Acts. By the first of the said Acts (sect. 12.) it is enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the Governors authorised or appointed to regulate and superintend the Bounty given by her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, to advance and lend any sum or sums of money, not exceeding the sum of 100*l.* in respect of each living or benefice, out of the money which has arisen, or shall from time to time arise from that Bounty, for promoting and assisting the several purposes of this Act, with respect to any such livings or benefices as shall not exceed the clear annual improved value of 50*l.* And such mortgage and security shall be made for the repayment of the principal sums so to be advanced as are hereinbefore-mentioned, but no interest shall be paid for the same. And in cases where the annual value of such living or benefice shall exceed the sum of 50*l.* that it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors to advance, and lend for the purposes of this Act, any sum not exceeding two years income of such living or benefice upon such mortgage and security as aforesaid, and subject to the several regulations of this Act, and to receive interest for the same not exceeding 4*l.* for 100*l.* by the year."

1st Loan of Money under these Acts.

In pursuance of the power so given to the Governors, they agreed, at a general Court held on the 16th day of December, 1779, to advance to the Incumbent of the chapelry of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland and diocese of Chester, the sum of 95*l.* being the amount to two years income of that chapelry, on the security of a mortgage of the profits thereof. And this is the only instance of a loan of money by the Governors under the powers of the said Acts for many years after the passing thereof, the Governors having upon consideration invariably rejected all applications. But when the paramount importance of the residence of the Clergy, and the means of promoting it in more recent times, occupied the attention of the heads of the Church (who have always taken the lead in the management of Queen Anne's Bounty,) it did not fail to strike them that by adopting the plan of lending money as authorised by the before-mentioned Acts, they would not only invest their funds on good security, but would largely contribute to the convenience and comfort of the Clergy, and greatly promote residence, by lending to the Incumbents of livings, money to enable them to purchase, build, rebuild, enlarge, or improve glebe houses.

The Governors resolved to avail themselves of the powers of these Acts.

The Govenors accordingly in the year 1811 set apart the sum of 50,000*l.* to be lent in the manner before-mentioned, and that sum being rapidly disposed of, they from time to time set apart further sums, and continued their loans to all applicants, and between the above-mentioned year and the end of 1825, they have advanced to Incumbents of livings sums of money on mortgage of the profits thereof, amounting to the sum of 362,129*l.* 11*s.* 5*d.* For interest, the Governors at first received 4*l.* per cent. per annum, but they have lately availed themselves of the power given by the Act hereinafter referred to, and have reduced the rate of interest to 3*l.* per cent. per annum on all monies remaining due on these loans. The Incumbents who do not reside twenty weeks in the year, are bound to pay yearly one tenth; and those who do reside for twenty weeks in the year, one twentieth part of the principal sums borrowed by them; but by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifth year of the reign of his present Majesty King George the Fourth, chap. 89, intituled "An Act for the relief in certain cases of the Incumbents of ecclesiastical livings or benefices mortgaged for building, rebuilding, repairing, or purchasing houses and other necessary buildings and tenements for such benefices," (Sect. 6.) it is enacted, "that in case any Incumbent of any living or benefice mortgaged or to be mortgaged by virtue of the said former Acts, who shall not reside twenty weeks in any year upon such living or benefice, shall have been non-resident in the same year by licence of the Bishop of the diocese within which such living or benefice shall be locally situate, granted by reason or on account of any actual illness or infirmity

And (by sect. 7.) it is enacted, " That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, at any time or times after the passing of this Act, to reduce the rate of the interest secured to them by any mortgage or mortgages heretofore made to them under the authority of the said former Acts, and thereafter to become due, to such rate or rates as to them shall appear just and reasonable."

To this measure of the Governors, and to that of applying money appropriated by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in the purchase of, or in defraying the expences of building, re-building, or enlarging glebe houses (which is treated of and explained in this work,) is to be mainly attributed the improved condition of the residences of the Clergy throughout the kingdom. The loans advanced by the Governors to Incumbents, and the application by them of appropriated money in numerous instances, have caused the erection or improvement of the many new or newly improved, comfortable, and suitable dwellings for Clergymen, which occur so frequently to the view in towns and villages as cannot fail to attract notice, and have consequently in a very considerable degree promoted the residence of the Clergy.

Incumbents to refer to Solicitor of the Governors for instructions for borrowing money.

By reference to the Solicitor of the Governors, all necessary instructions may be obtained, by Incumbents who may desire to borrow money of the Governors under Gilbert's Acts for the before-mentioned purposes.

Instructions as to laying out Money appropriated to a Benefice by the Governors, in defraying the expences of building, rebuilding, or enlarging and improving, or in the purchase of a Glebe House and Offices thereto.

Act 43 G. 3, chap. 107, Governors empowered to apply money appropriated to a living in building or purchasing a house for the residence of the Incumbent.

By the before-mentioned Act, passed in the 43rd year of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 107. (sec. 3.) it is enacted as follows, " And be it further enacted, that where a Living shall have been, or shall be, augmented by the said Governors, either by way of lot or benefaction, and there is no parsonage house suitable for the residence of the Minister, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, and they are hereby empowered, from time to time, in order to promote the residence of the Clergy on their benefices, to apply and dispose of the money appropriated for such augmentation and remaining in their hands, or any part thereof, in such manner as they shall deem most advisable, in, or towards the building, rebuilding or purchasing a house and other proper erections within the Parish, convenient and suitable for the residence of the Minister thereof; which house shall for ever thereafter, be deemed the parsonage house, appertaining to such living, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; any thing in any Act or Acts, or the rules of the said Governors, contained to the contrary notwithstanding."

The Governors require when any application is made to them under this clause, (to build, or rebuild, enlarge or improve, for it does not include repairs) that there be laid before them the following documents, viz.

Documents to be laid before the Governors.

1st. A plan of the ground and of the elevation, and of the several floors, shewing the size of each room, a specification of the works minutely detailed, and an estimate of the expence, (drawn out in a clear and business-like manner,) of the works intended to be completed, to be verified by the affidavit of a Surveyor, (before a Justice of the Peace,) and an undertaking on the part of the Surveyor, or some respectable workman, signed by him, and attested, to do the works in a good substantial and workmanlike manner; and according to the plan, specification, and estimate for the sum stipulated.

2nd. A survey of the condition of the old house and buildings, (if any) with the opinion of a Surveyor, whether the same can be repaired, to answer any useful purpose; and of the value of the old materials, to be verified in like manner.

Survey of the condition of the old house.

3rdly. Also that it be ascertained, to the satisfaction of the Governors, whether any and what sum has been received for dilapidations, and if any such sum has been received, in what manner it has been laid out.

money.

If an Incumbent proposes to purchase a house with money appropriated by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty to the augmentation of his living, it will be necessary for him to make application to their Secretary, and to name three beneficed Clergymen and three Laymen of respectability to be commissioners, in a commission of inquiry as to the eligibility of such intended purchase, and to proceed in the same manner as is directed in that part of this book which treats of purchases generally.

Act 57
Geo. III.
ch. 99.

By an Act passed in the 57th year of his late Majesty King George the Third (chap. 99, sec. 7,) after reciting that the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty had in some instances purchased, and might thereafter purchase houses not situated within the parishes for which they are purchased, but so contiguous as to be sufficiently convenient and suitable for the residence of the officiating ministers thereof, it was enacted, "that such houses having been previously approved by the Bishop by writing under his hand and seal, and duly registered in the registry of the diocese, shall be deemed houses of residence appertaining to such benefices to all intents and purposes whatsoever."

Augmentation of Donatives.

By the before mentioned Act of Parliament of the 1 Geo. I. chap 10 (sec 14 and 15) it is enacted as follows: "And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all such Donatives which are now exempt from all ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and shall be augmented by virtue of the powers given by this Act, shall be subject to the visitation and jurisdiction of the Bishop of the diocese wherein such donative is, to all intents and purposes of law whatsoever; provided always that no Donative shall be augmented without the consent of the Patron or Patrons in writing under his or their hands and seals first had and obtained."

Act 1 Geo. I. ch. 10. as to the augmentation of Donatives. (Sec. 14 and 15.)

In case the Patron of a Donative is desirous to obtain augmentation for it from the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, by which it will consequently become under episcopal jurisdiction, it is necessary for him to forward to the Secretary of the Governors a consent under his hand and seal, in or to the effect of the following form:

Patron of Donative to signify his consent before augmentation.

I, A—B, of —, in the county of —, Esq. patron of the Donative or Curacy of —, in the county of —, and diocese of —, do by this writing under my hand and seal signify my consent to the augmentation of the said Donative or Curacy by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of

After consent Donative will be augmentable as any other Living, and become subject to episcopal authority.

Whereupon the said Donative or Cure will become augmentable as any other Cure of the same value, and will become subject to episcopal authority; and if any lots shall have been previously drawn in its favour, and set aside for want of the Patron's consent, the Governors may restore such lots, and if the number of inhabitants within the said Donative or Cure amounts to 500 or upwards, it will be entitled, like any other Cure, containing the same population, and of equal value, to be augmented by the Governors out of the Parliamentary grants on account of population.

General Remarks as to Donatives.

Many Donatives have by the operation of Queen Anne's Bounty been augmented and brought under episcopal jurisdiction; and as the Act of the 57 Geo. III. chap. 99, includes Donatives, and brings them under ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as to the residence of the Incumbents, and the maintenance and regulation of the Curates thereof, and as the Bishops may regulate the performance of morning and evening service on Sundays in Donative Churches, and as the Patron of a Donative does not by consenting to the augmentation of it, forfeit or surrender his right to nominate a new Incumbent whenever a vacancy may occur, it appears probable that Donatives will, for the most part, by the consent of the Patrons thereof, be rendered augmentable, and be brought entirely under episcopal jurisdiction.

Augmentation of Cures, as affecting the Curates thereof, and the Incumbents of the Mother Churches to which they appertain.

By the before-mentioned Act, passed in the 1st year of the reign of King George the First, chap. 10 (sec. 4 and 5), after reciting that her said late Majesty's Royal Bounty to the poor Clergy was intended to extend, not only to Parsons and Vicars who come in by presentation or collation, institution and induction, but likewise to such Ministers who come in by donation, or are only stipendiary Preachers or Curates officiating in any church or chapel, where the Liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as now by law established, are and shall be used and observed, most of which are not Corporations, nor have a legal succession; and therefore are incapable of taking a grant or conveyance of such perpetual augmentation as is agreeable to her said late Majesty's gracious intentions; and in many places it would be in the power of the Impropiator, Donor, Parson, or Vicar, to withdraw the allowance now or heretofore paid to the Curate or Minister serving the cure, or in case of a chapelry, the Incumbent of the Mother Church might refuse to employ a Curate, or permit a Minister duly nominated or licenced to officiate in such augmented chapel, and might officiate there himself, and take the benefit of the augmentation, though his living be above the value of those which are intended to be first augmented, and the maintenance of the Curate or Minister would thus be sunk instead of otherwise, of right and not of bounty, ought to be by them respectively paid and allowed, and which they might, by due course of law before the making of this Act, have been compelled to pay or allow to the respective Ministers officiating there, and such other yearly sum or allowance, as shall be agreed upon (if any shall be) between the said Governors and such Patron or Impropriator upon making the augmentation, and the same are and shall be hereby perfectly vested in the ministers officiating in such augmented Church or Chapel respectively, and their respective successors. The practice of the

The practice of the Governors when a Curacy or

Chapel of Ease appertaining to a Mother Church is to be augmented, either in consequence of a lot falling to it, or on account of population; or where a benefaction is offered, is to issue the queries used previous to all augmentations (provided the yearly value thereof has been previously certified to them, which must first be done either by a supplemental return, or by answers to a special commission), and on receipt of the answers to such queries, they consider whether the Incumbent is liable to provide for the duty of the said Curacy or Chapel, and they look to the revenues of the Mother Church, and of the Curacy or Chapel, and to the population of each; and if the liability of the Incumbent of the Mother Church to provide for the duty is proved, or it turns out that the annual value of the Mother Church is considerable, the Governors, if they approve of the separation, require the consents in writing of the Incumbent and Patron of the Mother Church to the augmentation of the Curacy or Chapel, and to the separation of it from the Mother Church, and stipulate that part of the revenues of the Mother Church shall be legally fixed and secured by the Incumbent thereof, for the benefit of the Curacy or Chapel, before they proceed to augment it; and, if this be agreed to, the papers are referred to the Governors' Solicitor to prepare, at their expence, the necessary deed to be executed by the Incumbent of the Mother Church. The Governors do not approve of such a separation where the Mother Church has a small population and considerable revenue, and the Curacy or Chapelry a large population. In fact the Governors examine very narrowly all the circumstances connected with this subject, and decide upon every case of the kind which arises, according to its own peculiar character and merits, so that it is impossible to give more than a mere outline of general proceedings, which however may be accompanied with a remark, that a strong case must be made out to induce the Governors to give their consent to separate a Chapel of Ease from the Mother Church.

Avoidance of Benefices by the Incumbents thereof, in consequence of their acceptance of Churches, Curacies, or Chapels, augmented by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty.

1 Geo. I.
ch. 10.
(Sec. 4.)

All churches augmented to become Perpetual Cures and Benefices.

By the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of King George the First, chap. 10 (sec. 4.) it is enacted, "That all such Churches, Curacies, or Chapels, which shall at any time hereafter be augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, shall be and are hereby declared and established to be from the time of such augmentation Perpetual Cures and Benefices."

Act 36
Geo. III.
ch. 83.
(Sec. 3 & 4.)

And by an Act passed in the 36th year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 83, intituled, "An Act for the further support and maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for making certain regulations respecting the appointment of such Curates, and the admission of persons to cures augmented by Queen Anne's Bounty, with respect to the avoidance of other Benefices" (sec. 3.)

after reciting the before-stated section, in the Act 1st Geo. I. chap. 10, and that it was expedient that such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, should be subjected to the same rules as benefices with respect to the avoidance of other benefices, it is enacted, "That such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, shall be considered in law as benefices presentative, so as that the licence thereto shall operate in the same manner as institution to such Benefices, and shall render voidable other livings, in like manner as institution to the said Benefices ; and (by sec. 4,) after reciting that doubts had lately been entertained, whether the acceptance of such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, had rendered voidable in law such other benefices as the Incumbents possessed, before their acceptance of the same ; and that it was fit that many Incumbents who had accepted such Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, should be quieted in the possession of the Benefices they enjoyed before the acceptance of the same, "it is enacted and declared, that all such Benefices as were held in conjunction with augmented Cures before the passing of this Act, shall continue to be held by the present Incumbents therewith ; and that it shall not be lawful to present to the said Benefices until they shall become void or voidable by death or cession, or by other lawful cause of avoidance arising after the passing of this Act."

Licence to an augmented Cure shall render voidable other benefices.

Benefices held with augmented cures before the passing of this Act shall continue to be held therewith.

It is held that the licence to an augmented Cure, or the continuing to hold a Cure after its augmentation by the Governors, renders voidable a benefice held by such Incumbent before such licence, or before such augmentation. And that an augmented Cure will be rendered voidable by the collation or institution of the Observations on avoidance by means of augmented Cures.

Incumbent thereof to a Rectory or Vicarage, or by his licence to another augmented Cure. Some further Parliamentary enactments appear in the year 1807 to have been contemplated on this subject—when a temporary Act of Parliament passed, viz. 47 Geo. III. sess. 2, chap. 75, intituled, “An Act for suspending the operation of an Act of the 36th year of his present Majesty, for the further support and maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for other purposes in the said Act mentioned so far as relates to the avoidance of Benefices, by the Incumbents thereof having accepted augmented curacies.”

This Act expired in the following year, therefore, and as no further Act of Parliament on this subject has been passed, the law remains with respect to the avoidance of Benefices by augmentations made by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, as before the passing of such temporary Act.

By an Act passed in the 59th year of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 134, intituled, “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building, and promoting of additional churches in populous parishes” (sec. 16,) it is enacted, “That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents, as are required in case of divisions into ecclesiastical districts, under the said recited Act or this Act, to assign a particular district to any Chapel of Ease or Parochial Chapel already existing, or to any Chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act, and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such Chapel, but subject nevertheless to the superintendence and control of the Incumbent of the Parish Church ; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the Incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates." And it is amongst other things provided, " that no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings ; any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law, or laws to the contrary notwithstanding."

Lapse of vacant augmented Cures for want of Nomination by the Patron.

By the before-mentioned Act of the 1st Geo. I. chap. 10. The two officers named in the first charter, are a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Secretary.

The Secretary is directed by the said charter, "to act and perform all such matters and things for and on the behalf of the said Corporation, as shall be found requisite and necessary to be executed and performed by him in such office." The Secretary appointed by the said charter was John Chamberlain, Esq. The present Secretary, (appointed in 1822,) is Christopher Hodgson, Esq. who resides in the house belonging to the Governors, (wherein they hold their meetings) in Great Dean's Yard, Westminster, and has his office there; and the official business requiring it, he is assisted by Mr. Thomas Glanfield, senior clerk, and Mr. John Holford, junior clerk.

The Treasurer appointed by the said charter ~~was~~ Treasurer. Edward Tennison, senior, gentleman. The present Treasurer, (appointed in 1807,) is John Paterson, Esq. whose office is at No. 68, Old Broad-street, in the City.

By the first charter, the appointment of the Secretary and Treasurer, whenever a vacancy might happen, was given to the Governors; but by the second charter, the appointment of those officers was reserved to the Crown; and the several persons who have since filled, and those who now hold the two offices, have (upon the recommendation of the Governors,) been appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, during the pleasure of the Crown. Soon after the establishment of the Corporation, by reason of the purchases of lands and tythes made by the Governors to augment small livings, and on account of the various legal matters consequent upon the increasing business of the board, a Counsel learned in the law, and a Solicitor, were appointed by the Governors to assist them; the present Counsel is William Courtenay, Esq. and John Dyneley, Esq. of Gray's-Inn, is the Solicitor.

2, 3 ANNE, ch. 11.

An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the Revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other Persons to make Grants for the same Purpose.

‘ WHEREAS at a Parliament holden in the six and twentieth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, the first fruits, revenues, and profits for one year, upon every nomination or appointment to any dignity, benefice, office, or promotion spiritual, within this realm, or elsewhere within the said King's dominions, and also a perpetual yearly rent or pension, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the revenues and profits belonging to any dignity, benefice, or promotion spiritual whatsoever, within any diocese of this realm, or in Wales, were granted to the said King Henry the Eighth, his heirs and successors; and divers other statutes have since been made touching the First Fruits and annual Tenths of the Clergy, and the ordering thereof: And whereas a sufficient settled provision for the Clergy, in many parts of this realm, hath never yet been made; by reason whereof divers mean and stipendiary Preachers are in many places entertained to serve the Cures, and officiate there; who depending for their necessary maintenance upon the good-will and liking of their hearers, have been, and are thereby under temptation of too much complying and suiting their doctrines and teaching to the humours rather than the good of their hearers, which hath been a great occasion of faction and schism, and contempt of the Ministry: and forasmuch as your Majesty, taking into your princely and serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers parts of this your kingdom, has been most graciously pleased, out of your most religious and tender concern for the Church of England, (whereof your Majesty is the only supreme head on earth,) and for the poor Clergy thereof, not only to remit the arrears of your

'Tenths due from your poor Clergy, but also to declare unto your most dutiful and loyal Commons your royal pleasure and pious desire, that the whole revenue arising from the First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy might be settled for a perpetual augmentation of the maintenance of the said Clergy, in places where the same is not already sufficiently provided for;' we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of England, in Parliament assembled, to the end that your Majesty's most gracious intentions may be made effectual, and that the Church may receive so great and lasting an advantage from your Majesty's parting with so great a branch of your revenue, towards the better provision for the Clergy not sufficiently provided for; and to the intent your Majesty's singular zeal for the support of the Clergy, and the honour, interest, and future security of the Church, as by law established, may be perpetuated to all ages, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by her Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate such persons as her Majesty shall therein nominate or appoint, to be one body politic and corporate, to have a common seal, and perpetual succession; and also at her Majesty's will and pleasure, by the same, or any other Letters Patents, to grant, limit, or settle, to or upon the said Corporation, and their successors for ever, all the revenue of First Fruits, and yearly perpetual Tenths of all dignities, offices, benefices, and promotions spiritual whatsoever, to be applied and disposed of, to and for the augmentation of the maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers, officiating in any Church or Chapel within the kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as now by Law established, are or shall be used and observed, with such lawful powers, authorities, directions, limitations, and appointments, and under such rules and restrictions, and in such manner and form, as shall be therein expressed; the statute made in the first year of her said Majesty's reign, intituled, An Act for the better support of her Majesty's household, and of the honour and dignity of the Crown, or any other law to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that all and every the statutes and provisions, touching or concerning the ordering, levying, and true answering and payment, or qualification of the said First Fruits and Tenths, or touching the charge, discharge, or alteration of them, or any of them, or any matter or thing relating thereunto, which were in force at the time of making this Act, shall be, remain, and continue in their full force and effect, and be observed and put in due execution according to the tenors and purports of the same, and every of them, for such intents and purposes nevertheless, as shall be contained or directed in or by the said Letters Patents.

III. Provided also, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to avoid, or any way to impeach or affect any grant, exchange, alienation, or incumbrance, at any time heretofore made, of or upon the said revenues of First Fruits and Tenths, or any part thereof; but that the same shall, during the continuance of such grant, exchange, alienation, or incumbrance respectively, be and remain of and in such force and virtue, and no other, to all intents and purposes, as if this Act had not been made.

Proviso for all grants, &c. heretofore made.

IV. And for the encouragement of such well-disposed persons as shall, by her Majesty's royal example, be moved to contribute to so pious and charitable a purpose, and that such their charity may be rightly applied; be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all and every person and persons, having in his or their own right any estate or interest in possession, reversion, or contingency, of or in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any property of or in any goods or chattels, shall have full power, licence, and authority, at his, her, and their will and pleasure, by deed inrolled, in such manner, and within such time, as is directed by the statute made in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, for inrolment of bargains and sales, or by his, her, or their last will or testament in writing, duly executed according to law, to give and grant to, and vest in the said Corporation, and their successors, all such his, her, or their estate, interest, or property, in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, goods and chattels, or any part or parts thereof, for and towards the augmentation of the maintenance of such Ministers as aforesaid, officiating in such Church or Chapel, where the liturgy and rites of the said Church are or shall be so used or observed as aforesaid, and having no settled competent provision belonging to the same, and to be for that purpose applied according to the will of the said benefactor, in and by such deed inrolled, or by such will or testament executed as aforesaid, expressed: and in default of such direction, limitation, or appointment, in such manner as by her Majesty's Letters Patents shall be directed or appointed as aforesaid. And such Corporation, and their successors, shall have full capacity and ability to purchase, receive, take, hold, and enjoy, for the purposes aforesaid, as well from such persons as shall be so charitably disposed to give the gifts, &c.

V. Provided always, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to enable any person or persons, being within age or of non sane memory, or women covert, without their husbands, to make any such gift, grant, or alienation; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

One bond only to be the four payments of the First Fruits.

' VI. And whereas four bonds for four half yearly payments of the First Fruits, as the same are rated, and also a fifth bond for a further value or payment, in respect of the same First Fruits, have been required and taken from the Clergy, to their great and unnecessary burden and grievance; for remedy thereof be it enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and four, one bond only shall in such case be given or required for the four payments of the said First Fruits; which said First Fruits, as well as the Tenths payable by the Clergy, shall hereafter be answered and paid by them according to such rates and proportions only as the same have heretofore been usually rated and paid; and no such fifth bond already given shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand seven hundred and four, be sued or recovered.

1 GEO. 1. ch. 10.

An Act for making more effectual her late Majesty's gracious Intentions for augmenting the Maintenance of the poor Clergy.

' WHEREAS it is necessary for the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, in order to the more regular making proper augmentations, to be informed, as exactly as may be, of the clear improved yearly value of the maintenance of all such Parsons, Vicars, Curates and Ministers, officiating in any Church or Chapel within that part of Great Britain called England, the dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy, and rights of the Church of England, as now by law established, are or shall be used and observed, whose maintenance is intended to be augmented: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that the respective Bishops of every Diocese, and the guardians of the spiritualities sede vacante, shall be and are hereby impowered and required, from time to time, as they shall see occasion, and as may best serve the purposes of the said Bounty to the poor Clergy, as well by the oath of two or more credible witnesses, (which they or others commissioned by them under their hands and seals, are hereby impowered to administer) as by all other lawful ways and means, to inform themselves of the clear improved yearly value of every Benefice with Cure of souls, Living, and Curacy, and of the true and clear improved yearly value of the maintenance of every Parson, Vicar, Curate, and Minister, officiating in any such Churches or Chapels, as aforesaid, within their several Dioceses, or within any Peculiar or places of exempt jurisdiction within the bounds and limits of their respective Dioceses, or adjoining and contiguous thereunto, although the same be exempt from the jurisdiction of any Bishop in other cases, and how such yearly values arise, with the other circumstances thereof, and the same or such of them whereof they shall have fully informed themselves, from time to time, with all convenient speed, to certify under their respective hands, and seal or seals of their respective offices, to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, for their better information in the premises.

Bishops shall inform themselves of yearly Value of every Benefice, &c.

and certify same.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that where by certificates duly returned into Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, pursuant to an Act made in the Parliament held in the fifth year of the reign of Her said late Majesty, intituled, "An Act for discharging small livings from their First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof," and one other Act made in the sixth year of the reign of her said late Majesty, intituled, "An Act to enlarge the time for returning the certificates of all ecclesiastical Livings, not exceeding the yearly value of fifty pounds: as also for discharging all livings of that value from the payment of First Fruist; and for allowing time to Archbishops and Bishops, and other Dignitaries for payment of their First Fruits," or either of them, or made good by this Act, the yearly value of any livings, not exceeding the clear yearly value of fifty pounds, are particularly and duly expressed and specified, such certificates shall ascertain the yearly values of such livings, in order to their being augmented by the said Governors, and no new or different valuation thereof shall be returned to the said Governors by virtue of this present Act.

Letters Patent.

‘ III. And whereas by her late Majesty’s Letters Patent under her Great Seal, bearing date the third day of November in the third year of her reign, incorporating the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, the said Governors were authorized to consider, consult, advise, agree upon, draw up, prepare, and propose in writing to her said Majesty, her heirs and successors, such proper and necessary rules, methods, directions, orders and constitutions, as the said Governors, or any seven or more of them, with such quorum as is therein directed, should in their discretions judge most convenient to be observed, for and towards the better rule and government of the said Corporation, and the members thereof, and the receiving, accounting for, and managing all and every the revenues thereby granted or mentioned to be granted, and all arrears thereof, and also for and concerning the distributing, paying and disposing of the same, and all other gifts and benevolences that should or might be given or bequeathed to the said Corporation for the charitable ends in the said Letters Patent mentioned, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy aforesaid ; and such rules, methods, orders, directions and constitutions, as should be so proposed and should be approved, altered or amended by her said late Majesty, her heirs or successors, and such as should be made by her said Majesty, her heirs and successors, and so signified and declared by her, her heirs, or successors, under her or their Great Seal, her said late Majesty thereby willed should be the rules, methods, directions, orders and constitutions, by which the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy and their successors, should receive, manage, govern, apply and dispose her said late Majesty’s royal Bounty, and other gifts and benevolences which should or might after that time be given or bequeathed to the said Corporation (where the Donors thereof shall not particularly direct the application thereof) to and for the increase of the maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers officiating in any Church or Chapel within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as then by Law established, were and should be used and observed, for whom a maintenance was not then sufficiently provided : And whereas pursuant to the said Letters Patent of Incorporation, the said Governors did agree upon, prepare, and proposed to her said late Majesty, certain rules and constitutions for the better rule and Government of the said Corporation, and her said late Majesty, by Letters Patent under her Great Seal, bearing date the fifth day of March in the twelfth year of her reign, did establish the said rules and constitutions, reserving to herself, her heirs and successors, power from time to time, under her or their Great Seal, to alter the same, and to give and make in like manner such other rules and constitutions according to the true intention of the said letters patent of incorporation, as to Her said Majesty her heirs or successors should seem meet : and whereas a more expeditious and easy method of making and altering the rules and constitutions, for the better rule and Government of the said Corporation, may tend to the advancement of the said charity ; Be it enacted and declared, by the authority aforesaid, that all such rules, methods, orders, directions and constitutions, as shall from time to time be by the said Governors agreed upon; prepared, and proposed to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, according to the true intention of the said Letters Patent of incorporation, and by his Majesty, his heirs and successors, approved under his or their Sign Manual, shall be as good, valid and effectual rules, methods, directions, orders and constitutions, for the purposes aforesaid, as if the same were made and established under the Great Seal of His Majesty, his heirs or successors.

What rules, &c. under the King's Sign Manual shall be valid.

‘ IV. And whereas her said late Majesty's Royal Bounty to the poor Clergy was intended to extend not only to Parsons and Vicars who come in by presentation or collation, institution, and induction, but likewise to such Ministers who come in by donation, or are only Stipendiary Preachers or Curates, officiating in any Church or Chapel where the liturgy and rights of the Church of England is now by Law established, are and shall be used and observed, most of which are not Corporations, nor have a legal succession, and therefore are incapable of taking a grant or conveyance of such perpetual augmentation as is agreeable to her said late Majesty's gracious intentions, and in many places it would be in the power of the proprietor, Donor, Parson or Vicar, to withdraw the allowance now or heretofore paid to the Curate or Minister serving the Cure, or in case of a Chapelry, the Incumbent of the Mother-Church might refuse to employ a Curate, or permit a Minister duly nominated or licensed to officiate in such augmented Chapel, and might officiate there himself, and take the benefit of the augmentation, though his Living be above the value of those which are intended to be first augmented, and the maintenance of the Curate or Minister would thus be sunk instead of being augmented : Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all such Churches, Curacies, or Chapels, which shall at any time hereafter be augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, shall be, and are hereby declared and established to be, from the time of such augmentations, Perpetual Cures and Benefices, and the Ministers duly nominated and licensed thereunto, and their successors respectively, shall be, and be esteemed in law, bodies politic and corporate, and shall have perpetual succession by such name and names as in the grant of such augmentation shall be mentioned, and shall have a legal capacity, and are hereby enabled to take, in perpetuity, to them and their successors, all such lands, tenements, tithes, and hereditaments, as shall be granted unto or purchased for them respectively by the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, or other persons contributing with the said Governors as benefactors; any law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding: And that the Impropriators or Patrons of any augmented Churches or Donatives, for the time being, and their heirs, and the Rectors and Vicars of the Mother Churches whereto any such augmented Curacy or Chapel doth appertain, and their successors, shall be and are hereby utterly excluded from having or receiving directly or indirectly, any profit or benefit by such augmentation, and shall from time to time, and at all times, from and after such augmentation, pay and allow to the Ministers officiating in any such augmented Church or Chapel respectively, such annual and other pensions, salaries, and allowances, which by ancient custom, or otherwise, of right and not of Bounty, ought to be by them respectively paid and allowed, and which they might, by due course of law, before the making of this Act, have been compelled to pay or allow to the respective Ministers officiating there, and such other yearly sum or allowance as shall be agreed upon (if any shall be) between the said Governors and such Patron or Impropriator, upon making the augmentation, and the same are and shall be hereby perfectly vested in the Ministers officiating in such augmented Church or Chapel respectively, and their respective successors.

V. Provided always, that no such Rector or Vicar of such Mother Church, or any other ecclesiastical person or persons, having cure of souls, within the parish or place where such augmented Church or Chapel shall be situate, or his or their successors, shall hereby be divested or discharged from the same; but the cure of souls, with all other parochial rights and duties (such augmentation and allowances to the augmented Church or Chapel, as aforesaid, only excepted) shall hereafter be and remain in the same state, plight, and manner as before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had not been made.

VI. And for continuing the succession in such augmented Cures, hereby made Perpetual Cures and Benefices, and that the same be duly and constantly served; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in case such augmented Cures be suffered to remain void by the space of six months, without any nomination within that time of a fit person to serve the same (by the person or persons having the right of nomination thereunto) to the Bishop or other Ordinary, within that time, to be licensed for that purpose, the same shall lapse to the Bishop or other Ordinary, and from him to the Metropolitan, and from the Metropolitan to the Crown, according to the course of Law, used in cases of presentative Livings and Benefices, and the right of nomination to such augmented Cure may be granted or recovered, and the Incumbency thereof may and shall cease and be determined, in like manner, and by the like methods, as the presentation to, or Incumbency in any Vicarage presentative may be now respectively granted, recovered or determined.

VII. Provided always, that in case the person or persons entitled to nominate in such augmented Cure shall suffer lapse to incur, but shall nominate before any advantage taken thereof by the Ordinary, Metropolitan, or Crown, respectively, that such nomination shall be as effectual as if made within six months, although so much time be before elapsed, as that the title of lapse be vested in the Crown.

Nomination before

VIII. And in as much as by the said rules established by her said late Majesty, under her Great Seal, for the management of the aforesaid royal Bounty, her said late Majesty was pleased to manifest her gracious intentions to invite private contributions towards augmenting the maintenance of the poor Clergy, by ordering, amongst other things, that to encourage benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to complete the good that was intended by her said late Majesty's Bounty, the said Governors may give the sum of two hundred pounds (which is the stated sum allowed to each Cure which shall be augmented) to Cures not exceeding thirty five pounds per annum, where any person or persons will give the same or greater sum or value in lands or tithes: And inasmuch as the right of presentation, or nomination to small Livings, is of inconsiderable value, and yet it may be a great inducement to such Benefactions if the Benefactors may have some right of presentation or nomination to the Cure which himself contributes to augment; Be it therefore further enacted, That all agreements with such Benefactor and Benefactors, with the consent and approbation of the said Governors, touching the patronage or right of presentation or nomination to any such augmented Cure, made or to be made for the benefit of such Benefactor and Benefactors, his, her or their heirs or successors, by the King's most excellent Majesty, his heirs and successors, under his and their Sign Manual, or by any bodies politic or corporate, or by any person or persons being of the full age of twenty-one years, having an estate of inheritance either in fee-simple or fee-tail, in their own right, or in the right of their Churches, or wives, or jointly with their wives, made before coverture, or after, or having an estate for life, or for years determinable upon his and their own life and lives, with remainder in fee-simple or fee-tail to any issue of his or their own bodies, in such patronage, or right of presentation, or nomination, in possession, reversion or remainder, shall be respectively good and effectual in the law against his Majesty, his heirs, and successors, or against all and every such bodies politick and corporate, or against the persons so agreeing, their wives, heirs and successors respectively, and every of them, and against all and every their issue, and against every other person and persons claiming in remainder and reversion after such estate-tail, as aforesaid, according to the form of such agreement; and the advowson, patronage, and right of presentation and nomination to such augmented Churches and Chapels, shall be vested in such Benefactors, their heirs and successors, as against his Majesty, his heirs and successors, or the said bodies politick and corporate, and their successors, or the said respective persons, as aforesaid, as fully, and in like manner and form, as if the same had been granted by his said Majesty, his heirs or successors, under his and their Great Seal, and as if such bodies politick or corporate had been free from any restraint, and as if such other persons so agreeing had been sole seized in his and their own right of such advowson, patronage, right of presentation and nomination, in fee-simple, and had granted the same to such Benefactors, their heirs and successors respectively, according to such agreements.

Agreements of Guardians.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the agreements of guardians, for and on behalf of infants or idiots under their guardianship, shall be as good and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if the said infants or idiots had been of full age, and of sound mind, and had themselves entered into such agreements.

Agreement by a Parson.

X. Provided always, That in case of any such agreement, as aforesaid, by any Parson or Vicar, the same shall be with the consent and approbation of his Patron and Ordinary.

Wife a party.

XI. Provided also, That in case of any such agreement, as aforesaid, made by any person seized in right of his wife, the wife shall be a party to the agreement, and shall seal and execute the same.

Vacant Cures.

XII. And inasmuch as such Benefactors are to be considered, in some degree, as Founders and Patrons of churches; be it further enacted, that such agreements so made, as aforesaid, shall be as effectual for the supplying Cures vacant at the time of such augmentation made or proposed, as for the advowson or nomination to future vacancies.

Exchange.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, with the concurrence of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, and the Incumbent, Patron and

Ordinary of any augmented Living or Cure, to exchange all, or any part of the estate settled for the augmentation thereof, for any other estate in lands or tithes, of equal or greater value, to be conveyed to the same uses.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all such Donatives which are now exempt from all ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and shall be augmented by virtue of the powers given by this Act, shall be subject to the visitation and jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese wherein such Donative is, to all intents and purposes of law whatsoever.

Visitation of augmented Donatives.

XV. Provided always, that no Donative shall be augmented without the consent of the Patron or Patrons in writing, under his or their hands and seals first had and obtained.

No augmentation of Donative without consent.

XVI. Provided also, That where it shall fall to the lot of any Donative, Curacy, or Chapelry, to receive an augmentation from the said Bounty, according to the rules already established, or hereafter to be established, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, and they are hereby empowered, before they make the same augmentation, to treat and agree with the Patron of any Donative, Impropricator of any Rectory appropriated without endowment of any Vicarage, or Parson or Vicar of any Mother Church (as the case shall happen to be) for a perpetual yearly, or other payment or allowance to the Minister or Curate of such augmented Donative, Curacy, or Chapelry, and his successors, to be made in all succeeding times by such Patron, Impropricator, Parson, or Vicar, and his and their heirs and successors, and for charging and subjecting the Impropricate Rectory, or the Mother Church, or Vicarage therewith, and thereunto, in such manner, and with such remedies as shall be thought fit; and such agreements made with the King's most excellent Majesty, his heirs and successors, under his or their Sign Manual, or with any bodies politic or corporate, or any other person or persons having any estate or interest in possession, reversion, or remainder, in any such impropricate Rectory, in his or their own right, or in right of his or their churches or wives, or with the guardian or guardians of any person or persons having such estate or interest, or with any Parson or Vicar of any Mother Church, shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes with respect to such charges, as agreements made with his Majesty, his heirs and successors, or with the same person or persons, bodies politic or corporate respectively, touching the patronage or right of presentation or nomination to the same Cures, touching which such agreements shall be respectively made; and in case such Impropricator, other than the King's Majesty, his heirs and successors, and such Parson or Vicar, will not or shall not make such agreement with the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy; it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governors to refuse such augmentation, and to apply the money arising from the late Queen's said Bounty, which ought to have been employed therein, for augmenting some other Cure, according to the rules then in force.

'XVII. And whereas the before mentioned Acts of Parliament of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of her said late Majesty, were, for the Diocese of Chichester, not executed in due time, and in many Dioceses not with that exact certainty of the yearly values and distinction of mediety in the certificates, as regularly ought to have been; and some small Prebends in Cathedral Churches were, by reason of their being dignities, omitted in some certificates, although they have the cure of souls thereto annexed, and are therefore Livings with cure of souls within the words and meaning of the said Acts:' for supplying the defects in the execution of the said former Acts of Parliament: Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the certificate for the Diocese of Chichester, dated the twenty-fourth day of December, one thousand seven hundred and eight, which was received in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, and is now remaining there, shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been sealed and returned into the said Court of Exchequer within the times limited by the said respective Acts of Parliament in that behalf made; and also that all and every the Churches, Vicarages, and Livings, in and by the said certificate, or in and by the certificates made and returned in due time, or any of them, certified to be under fifty pounds per annum, and each mediety therein, shall be entitled to, and have the benefit of the said respective discharges by the said several Acts of Parliament, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as if the precise yearly value had been expressed, and the medieties distinguished in such certificate and certificates: and further, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, under their common seal, to be affixed at a court of the said Governors, and under the hands of the Governors then present, to certify into the Court of Exchequer the names of such Prebends in Cathedral Churches, under the yearly value of fifty pounds, the Prebendaries whereof have the immediate cure of souls of the respective parishes whereof such Prebends are denominated, although the same were not named in any former certificate; and such certificate and certificates of the said Governors, being returned into the said Court of Exchequer, shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes of the said two before mentioned Acts of Parliament, as if the Prebends therein named had been duly certified within the times in the said Acts limited, and by the persons and in the manner therein directed.

‘ XVIII. And whereas notwithstanding the utmost diligence of the Bishops to inform themselves of, and certify into his Majesty’s Court of Exchequer, all the Livings in their respective Dioceses under the clear improved yearly value of fifty pounds, in pursuance of the said Acts, the several Livings within the respective Dioceses hereafter named, though supposed to be under the value of fifty pounds per annum, have either not been certified, or if certified, the certificates of them have been lost, or not duly entered, or by some other mistakes it has so happened that the said Livings have not yet had the benefit designed them by the said Acts ;’ be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the Bishops of the said Dioceses, at any time before the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, to certify into the Court of Exchequer the Livings following, or such of them, as shall appear to the respective Bishops to be under the value of fifty pounds per annum (viz.) in the diocese of York, the Rectory of Saint Michael apud Pontem de Ouze in the city of York, the Vicarage of Skipwith, the Vicarage of Kilham, the Vicarage of North Leverton, the Vicarage of Norwell Overall : in the Diocese of Bangor, the Vicarage of Lanunda, the Vicarage of Llanfair Isgaer, the Vicarage of Llanor, the Vicarage of Nevin, the Vicarage of Abererch, the Vicarage of Conway, the Vicarage of Dwygyfylche : in the Diocese of Carlisle, the Rectory of Kirkbride, the Rectory of Dufton, the Vicarage of Edenhall : in the Diocese of Chichester, the Vicarage of Sela, the Rectory of Beatæ Mariæ in Westout Lewes, the Rectory of Chalton, the Rectory of Winchelsey, the Vicarage of Bernehill : in the Diocese of Saint David’s, the Vicarage of Merchir alias Mathre, the Vicarage of Saint Winnock alias Saint Twinnels : in the Diocese of Litchfield and Coventry, the Vicarage of Hartington, the Vicarage of Saint Mary’s in Litchfield, the South mediety of Darleigh, the Vicarage of Glossop : in the Diocese of Lincoln, the Rectory of Bellew alias Hellow, the Vicarage of Elsham, the Rectory of Normanby, the Rectory of Snarford, the Vicarage of Buckingham, the Rectory of Okeney, the Vicarage of Mentmore, the Vicarage of Missenden Magna, the Vicarage of Swanburn : in the Diocese of Norwich, the Vicarage of South Walsam, the Rectory of Framlingham, the Vicarage of Burnham Overy, the Vicarage of Scarning, the Vicarage of Nectons, the Vicarage of Melton Parva, the Rectory of Repham Medietas and altera Medietas, the Vicarage of Thurston, the Vicarage of Colkirke, the Livings not certified, which the Bishops may certify before March 25, 1716.

Governors may administer oaths.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Courts and Committees of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, shall have power and authority, and are hereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, to administer an oath to such person and persons as shall at any time give them information, or be examined of or concerning any matter or thing relating to the execution of this or the said former Acts of Parliament, or any way concerning the trust in them reposed.

Augmentations, &c. to be entered. To be taken as records. Attested copies.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all the augmentations, certificates, agreements, and exchanges, hereafter to be made, by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, shall be carefully examined and entered in a book to be provided and kept by the Governors for that purpose, the said entries being approved at a Court of the said Governors, and attested by the Governors then present, shall be taken to be as records, and the true copies thereof, or of the said entries, being proved by one or more credible witnesses, shall be deemed, taken, and adjudged to be good and sufficient evidence in law, touching the matters contained therein, or relating thereto.

In what case lands, &c. allotted to any church, &c. by Governors shall go in succession, &c.

XXI. And to the end that Churches and Chapels may at all times be capable of receiving augmentations for the maintenance of the Ministers thereof, be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, shall by any deed or instrument in writing under their common seal, allot or apply to any Church or Chapel, any lands, tithes, or hereditaments, arising from the said Bounty of her said late Majesty, or from private contribution or benefaction, or from all or any the ways aforesaid, and shall declare, that the same shall be for ever annexed to such Church or Chapel, then such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, shall from thenceforth be held and enjoyed, and go in succession with such

Church and Chapel for ever ; and such augmentation so made shall be good and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, whether such Church or Chapel, for which such augmentation is intended, be then full or vacant of an Incumbent or Minister ; provided such deed or instrument be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery within six months after the day of the date thereof.

Act 43 GEO. 3, ch. 107.

An Act for effectuating certain Parts of an Act, passed in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, " An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in Perpetuity, the Revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other Persons to make Grants for the same Purpose;" so far as the same relate to Deeds and Wills made for granting and bequeathing Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, and Chattels, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the purposes in the said Act mentioned, and for enlarging the Powers of the said Governors.

WHEREAS, by an Act, made in the second and third years of the reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, " An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant, in perpetuity, the revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths ; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose ;" after reciting, amongst other things, that for the encouragement of such well-disposed persons as should, by her Majesty's royal example, be moved to contribute to so pious and charitable a purpose, and that such their charity might be rightly applied, it was amongst other things enacted, that all and every person and persons having in his or their own right any estate or interest, in possession, reversion, or contingency, of or in any lands,

2 & 3 Anne, c. 11. § 4. by which persons were empowered to grant estates, &c. in their own right to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, towards the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Clergy, tenements, or hereditaments, or in any property of or in any goods or chattels, should have full power, licence, and authority, at his, her, and their will and pleasure, by deed enrolled in such manner and within such time as is directed by the statute made in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, for enrolment of bargains and sales, or by his, her, or their last will or testament in writing, duly executed according to law, to give and grant to and vest in the Corporation thereby authorized, and since erected under the name of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, and their successors, all such his, her, or their estate, interest, or property in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, goods, and chattels, or any part or parts thereof, for and towards the augmentation of the maintenance of such ministers officiating in such Church or Chapel where the liturgy and rites of the said Church were or should be so used or observed, as in the same Act were mentioned, and having no settled competent provision belonging to the same, and to be for that purpose applied according to the will of the said Benefactor, in and by such deed enrolled, or by such will or testament executed as aforesaid expressed, and in default of such direction, limitation, or appointment, in such manner as by her Majesty's Letters Patent should be directed or appointed as aforesaid; and such Corporation and their successors, should have full capacity and ability to purchase, receive, take, hold, and enjoy for the purposes aforesaid, from such persons as should be so charitably disposed to give the same, any manors, lands, tenements, goods, or chattels, without any licence or writ of ad quod damnum, the statute of mortmain or any other statute or law to the contrary notwithstanding: And it was by the same Act provided, that that Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to enable any person or persons being within age, or of non-sane memory, or women covert without their husbands, to make any such gift, grant, or alienation, any thing in that Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: And whereas the beneficial effect and operation of the said Act has been considerably obstructed and retarded by an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act to restrain the Disposition of Lands, whereby the same become unalienable;' for remedy thereof be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That so much of the said Act of her late Majesty Queen Anne, as is herein recited, shall be and remain in full force and effect, the said Act of his late Majesty King shall remain in force, notwithstanding Mortmain Act, 9G. 2. c. 36.

George the Second, or any other Act or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And whereas by an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for making more effectual her late Majesty's gracious intentions for augmenting the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful, with the concurrence of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the Incumbent, Patron, and Ordinary of any augmented Living or Cure, to exchange all or any part of the estate settled for the augmentation thereof, for any other estate in lands or tythes of equal or greater value, to be conveyed to the same uses; be it also enacted, that the said power shall be, and the same is hereby extended to all the messuages, buildings, and lands belonging to every such augmented Living or Cure.

Power of exchanging Lands, &c. under 1 G. 1 c. 10. (§ 13) extended to all the Lands, &c. of augmented Livings.

III. And be it further enacted, That where a living shall have been or shall be augmented by the said Governors, either by way of Lot or Benefaction, and there is no Parsonage House suitable for the residence of the Minister, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors, and they are hereby empowered, from time to time, in order to promote the residence of the Clergy on their benefices, to apply and dispose of the money appropriated for such augmentation and remaining in their hands, or any part thereof, in such manner as they shall deem most advisable, in or towards the building, rebuilding, or purchasing a house, and other proper erections within the parish, convenient and suitable for the residence of the Minister thereof, which house shall for ever thereafter be deemed the Parsonage House appertaining to such living, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; any thing in any Act or Acts, or the rules of the said Governor, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where there is no suitable Parsonage House, the Governors may provide one.

Act 45 GEO. 3, ch. 84.

An Act for making more effectual the gracious Intentions of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, so far as relates to the Returns of Certificates into the Exchequer, and Gifts of Personal Property.

1 G. I. c.
10.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual her late Majesty's gracious intentions for augmenting the maintenance of the poor Clergy," the respective Bishops of every Diocese were empowered from time to time, as they should see occasion, and as might best serve the purposes of the said Bounty to the poor Clergy, to inform themselves by such means as in the said Act are mentioned, of the clear improved yearly value of every Benefice with Cure of Souls, Living, and Curacy, and of the true and clear improved yearly value of the maintenance of every Parson, Vicar, Curate, and Minister officiating in any such Churches or Chapels as are therein mentioned, and how such yearly values arose, with the other circumstances thereof, and the same to certify to the said Governors, for their better information in the premises; in which said Act is contained a proviso, that where by certificates returned into her said Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, pursuant to an Act made in the fifth year of her reign, intituled, "An Act for discharging small Livings from their First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof;" and one other Act made in the sixth year of her reign, intituled, "An Act to enlarge the time for returning the certificates of all ecclesiastical livings not exceeding the yearly value of fifty pounds, and for other purposes," or either of them, or made good by the said recited Act of the first year of King George the First, the yearly value of any Livings not exceeding the clear yearly value of fifty pounds, were particularly and duly expressed and specified, such certificates should ascertain the yearly values of such Livings, in order to their being augmented by the said Governors, and no new or different valuation thereof should be returned to the said Governors by virtue of the said recited Act: and whereas since the time that such certificates were returned into the Exchequer, in pursuance of the said Acts of the fifth and sixth of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, many livings in such certificates mentioned, and thereby returned as not exceeding the clear yearly value of fifty pounds, for the purpose of being discharged from First Fruits and Tenths, are by subsequent improvement of their glebes and tithes, and by inclosures and other means, become of much greater value; and in order that the Bounty of her said late Majesty may be applied as was originally intended, for the augmentation of small livings, in places where the same are not already sufficiently provided for, and that her Majesty's gracious intentions for the relief of the poor Clergy may be more speedily and effectually carried into execution, it is become expedient that the Governors of the said Bounty should be empowered to receive new valuations of such livings as were so returned into the Exchequer: may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that the respective Bishops of every Diocese, and the Guardians of Spiritualities sede vacante, shall be and are hereby empowered from time to time, as they shall see occasion, and as may best serve the purposes of the said Bounty to the poor Clergy, by such ways and means as in the said Act of the first year of his Majesty King George the First, are mentioned in that behalf, to inform themselves of the clear improved yearly value of such Benefices with Cure of Souls, Livings, and Curacies, as were returned into the Exchequer in pursuance of the said Acts of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, within their several Dioceses, or within any peculiars or places of exempt jurisdiction within the bounds and limits of their respective Dioceses, or adjoining or contiguous thereto, although the same be exempt from the jurisdiction of any Bishop in other cases, and how such yearly values arise, with the other circumstances thereof; and the same or such of them, whereof they shall have fully informed themselves, from time to time, with all convenient speed to certify to the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, for their better information in the premises; and the said Governors are hereby authorized and empowered, with respect to the augmentation of such Livings, so formerly certified into the Exchequer as aforesaid, to act upon and be guided by such new certificates of the value and other circumstances thereof, made in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as they are in and by the said first hereinbefore mentioned and in part recited Act enabled to do with regard to such Livings as were not so certified into the Exchequer, and as if the restraint of the said proviso therein had not been made, the same proviso or

Bishops and Guardians to inquire into value of benefices returned into the Exchequer, and certify the same to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, who shall be empowered to act upon such new certificate as they are now enabled to do with respect to Livings not returned into the Exchequer.

any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Not to affect Livings with respect to their discharge from First Fruits and Tenths.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, that such certificates as were returned into the Exchequer for the purpose of ascertaining what Livings were to be discharged from First Fruits and Tenths, shall not, so far as the same relate to the First Fruits and Tenths, be affected or altered in any manner whatsoever by any thing in this Act contained.

For facilitating the intentions of persons disposed to contribute towards augmentation of livings.

III. And in order to facilitate the intentions of all such persons as may be disposed to contribute to the augmentation of such Livings and Curacies as are within the meaning of the laws now in force, respecting the said Bounty; be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any person or persons having in his, her, or their own right, any money, goods, chattels, or other personal effects, at his, her, or their will and pleasure, to give or grant to, or vest in the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne and their successors, to be by them disposed of according to law, all or any part of such money, goods, chattels, or other personal effects, without any deed or deeds, either enrolled or not enrolled, in like manner as he, she, or they could or might have done, either by deed or deeds enrolled or otherwise, before the passing of this Act, any statute or law to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Not to affect the laws respecting the gift or conveyance of lands, &c.

IV. Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner alter or affect the law now in force respecting the gift or conveyance of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, by any deed or deeds, or the disposition thereof, or of any goods, chattels, or other personal property, by will or testament.

THE FIRST CHARTER,

Sealed with the Great Seal of England.

3d November, 3 Anne.

The First Charter, 3d November, 3 Anne.

ANNE, by the grace of God of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. As the welfare and support of the Church of England, as by law established, have been always our greatest care, so we have, since our accession to the Crown, frequently reflected on the miserable condition of a very great number of the Clergy of this our kingdom, by reason of the mean and insufficient provision for their maintenance in several places, which tends very much to the ruin of this Church: and in regard that the

Her Majesty, reflecting on the mean condition of a great number of the Clergy, arrears of Tenths due to our Exchequer upon small Rectories and Vicarages could not be answered without great difficulties and hardships to the poor Incumbents, and that several of those Churches, for fear of incurring the full payment of such arrears, were held in sequestration by temporary Curates, without being regularly filled with institution and induction, we were resolved to do as much as in us lay towards easing of the Clergy, and were graciously inclined to think, that the Ministers who served those Cures might, in respect of their poverty, be true objects of our royal compassion, and that it would tend to the honour and good discipline of the Established Church, if those benefices were filled with able clerks, legally instituted and inducted; and to the charitable purpose aforesaid, we signed a warrant to authorise our Lord High Treasurer to discharge the arrears of Tenths due upon the small Rectories and Vicarages not exceeding thirty pounds per annum, by the most improved valuations of the same, on condition that the respective Churches were first filled with institution and induction; and our Lord High Treasurer signified our said bountiful intention by letters directed to our Archbishops and Bishops accordingly; and in order to settle a fund for increasing the maintenances of the poor Clergy, we commanded our right trusty and well-beloved counsellor Sir Charles Hedges, knight, one of our principal Secretaries of State, to deliver a message in writing, signed by us, to our most dutiful and loyal Commons of England in Parliament assembled, declaring, that we having taken into our serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the poor Clergy in divers parts of this kingdom, to give them some ease had been pleased to remit the arrears of the Tenths to the poor Clergy; and that, for augmentation of their maintenance, we would make a grant of our whole revenue arising out of First Fruits and Tenths, as far as it then was or should become free from incumbrances, to be applied to this purpose; and if the House of Commons could find any proper method by which our good intentions to the poor Clergy might be made more effectual, it would be a great advantage to the public and very acceptable to us. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament made in the second year of our reign, intituled, "An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose," reciting, that whereas, at a Parliament holden in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, the First Fruits, Revenues, and Profits for one discharges the arrears of Tenths due on small Livings not exceeding 30*l.* per annum.

Her Majesty's message to the Commons, signifying she was pleased to remit the arrears of Tenths, and would make a grant of her revenue of First Fruits and Tenths for an augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

An Act to enable her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenues of First Fruits and Tenths, and to enable any person to make grants.

Settled provision not being made, a temptation to preachers.

Queen may incorporate persons, and grant to them her revenue of First Fruits and Tenths for ever, to year, upon every nomination or appointment to any dignity, benefice, office, or promotion spiritual, within this realm or elsewhere within the said King's dominions, and also a perpetual yearly rent or pension amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the revenues and profits belonging to any dignity, benefice, or promotion spiritual whatsoever, within any diocese of this realm or in Wales, were granted to the said King Henry the Eighth, his heirs and successors; and divers other statutes have since been made touching the First Fruits and annual Tenths of the Clergy, and the ordering thereof; and whereas a sufficient settled provision for the Clergy in many parts of this realm hath never yet been made, by reason whereof divers mean and stipendiary Preachers are in many places entertained to serve the Cures and officiate there, who, depending for their necessary maintenance upon the good-will and liking of their hearers, have been and are thereby under temptation of too much complying and suiting their doctrines and teachings to the humours rather than the good of their hearers, which hath been great occasion of faction and schism and contempt of the ministry: and further mentioning, that forasmuch as we, taking into our princely and serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers parts of this our kingdom, have been most graciously pleased, out of our most religious and tender concern for the Church of England (whereof ourself is the only supreme head on earth,) and for the poor Clergy thereof, not only to remit the arrears of our Tenths due from our poor Clergy, but also to declare unto our most dutiful and loyal Commons, our royal pleasure and pious desire that the whole revenue arising from the First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy might be settled for a perpetual augmentation of the maintenance of the said poor Clergy in places where the same is not already sufficiently provided for: (to the end that our most gracious intentions may be made effectual, and that the Church may receive so great and lasting an advantage from our parting with so great a branch of our revenue towards the better provision for the Clergy not sufficiently provided for, and to the intent our singular zeal for the support of the Clergy, and the honour, interest, and future security of the church as by law established, may be perpetuated to all ages,) it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for us, by our Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate such persons as we shall therein nominate or appoint to be one body politic and corporate, and to have a common seal and perpetual succession; and also at our will and pleasure, by the same or any other Letters Patent, to grant, limit, or settle to or upon the said Corporation and their successors for ever, all the revenue of First

Fruits and yearly perpetual Tenths of all dignities, offices, benefices, and promotions spiritual whatsoever, to be applied and disposed of to and for the augmentation of the maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers officiating in any Church or Chapel within the kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the Liturgy and Rites of the Church of England as now by law established are or shall be used and observed, with such lawful powers, authorities, directions, limitations, and appointments, and under such rules and restrictions, and in such manner and form as shall be therein expressed: the statute made in the first year of our reign, intituled, "An Act for the better support of her Majesty's household, and of the honour and dignity of the Crown," or any other law, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Provided always, and it is thereby declared, that all and every the statutes and provisions touching or concerning the ordering, levying, and true answering and payment or qualification of the said First Fruits and Tenths, or touching the charge, discharge, or alteration of them or any of them, or any matter or thing relating thereunto, which were in force at the time of making the said Act, shall be, remain, and continue in their full force and effect, and be observed and put in due execution, according to the tenors and purports of the same and every of them, for such intents and purposes nevertheless as shall be contained or directed in or by the said Letters Patents. Provided also, that the said Act, or any thing therein contained, should not extend to avoid or in any way impeach or affect any grant, exchange, alienation, or incumbrance at any time heretofore made of or upon the said revenues of First Fruits and Tenths, or any part thereof; but that the same shall, during the continuance of such grant, exchange, alienation, or incumbrance respectively, be and remain of and in such force and virtue, and no other, to all intents and purposes as if the said Act had not been made. And for the encouragement of such well-disposed persons as shall by our royal example be moved to contribute to so pious and charitable a purpose, and that such their charity may be rightly applied, it is enacted, that all and every person and persons having in his or their own right any estate or interest in possession, reversion, or contingency of or in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any property of or in any goods or chattels, shall have full power, licence, and authority, at his, her, and their will and pleasure, by deed enrolled in such manner and within such time as is directed by the statute made in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, for enrolment of bargains and sales, or by his, her, or their last will or testament be applied to the use of the poor Clergy.

The statutes concerning First Fruits and Tenths to remain in force.

Not to impeach any grant heretofore made.

All persons may grant to the Corporation any estate, real or personal, to the use of the poor Clergy.

The Corporation may purchase and receive without licence.

Not to enable persons of non sane memory, &c. to grant.

Names of the Commissioners incorporated.

in writing, duly executed according to law, to give and grant to, and vest in, the said Corporation and their successors, all such his, her, or their estate, interest, or property in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, goods and chattels, or any part or parts thereof, for and towards the augmentation of the maintenance of such Ministers as aforesaid, officiating in such Church or Chapel where the liturgy and rites of the said Church are or shall be so used or observed as aforesaid, and having no settled competent provision belonging to the same; and to be for that purpose applied according to the will of the said benefactor in and by such deed enrolled, or by such will or testament executed as aforesaid, expressed, and, in default of such direction, limitation, or appointment, in such manner as by our Letters Patents shall be directed or appointed as aforesaid. And such Corporation and their successors shall have full capacity and ability to purchase, receive, take, hold, and enjoy for the purposes aforesaid, as well from such persons as shall be so charitably disposed to give the same, as from all other persons as shall be willing to sell or aliene to the said Corporation any manors, lands, tenements, goods, or chattels, without any licence or writ of ad quod damnum; the statute of mortmain, or any other statute or law, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that the said Act, or any thing therein contained, should not extend to enable any person or persons being within age, or of non sane memory, or women covert without their husbands, to make any such gift, grant, or alienation, any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, as in and by the said Act of Parliament may more at large appear.

Now know ye, that we, to the end our said gracious intentions may be made effectual, and that the Church may receive a great and lasting advantage from our parting with our said revenue of First Fruits and Tenths towards the better provision for the Clergy not sufficiently provided for, and pursuant to the said Act of Parliament, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have made, appointed, nominated, constituted, and established, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, do make, appoint, nominate, constitute, and establish, our most dear consort Prince George of Denmark, our high admiral and generalissimo of all our forces—the most reverend Father in God our right trusty and right entirely beloved counsellor, Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being—our right trusty and well-beloved counsellor, Sir Nathan Wright, knight, Keeper of our Great Seal of England—the most reverend Father in God, our right trusty and well-beloved John, Archbishop of York, and the Archbishop of York for the time being—our right trusty

at least, in

year, at any convenient place or places aforesaid, (notice being in that behalf first given, by inserting the same in the Gazette, or otherwise, fourteen days before the holding of every such General Court); one of the said four General Courts to be held and kept in the month of December, another in the month of March, another in the month of June, and another in the month of September: And we do also and will by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do grant and ordain, that all the said Governors for the time being, or so many of them as shall at any time or times be assembled and met together as aforesaid, being not less than seven in number at one meeting or assembly in such General Court (of whom any one of the Privy Council of us, our heirs or successors, and any one of the Bishops aforesaid, and any one of the Judges aforesaid for the time being, or of the said Council learned in the Law of us, our heirs or successors, we will shall be always three), shall be and called a General Court of the said Corporation: and that in such General Courts the said Governors and their successors shall and may do and dispatch, by majority of votes, any business relating to the government and affairs of the said Corporation, and also hear, debate, and determine any complaint or matter that shall be brought or exhibited in the said Court, touching the affairs of the said Corporation; and shall and may call to their aid and assistance such persons as the said General Court, or the major part of them assembled as aforesaid, shall think fit to aid, assist, and advise the said Governors hereby constituted, and their successors, in the due and effectual execution of the powers and authorities hereby granted. And for the better ordering and managing the affairs of the said Corporation, we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, grant, authorise, and appoint that the Governors of the said Corporation hereby constituted, and for the time being, or any seven or more of them (of whom three or more to be such as aforesaid) shall and may from time to time, as often as they shall think fit, erect, nominate, and appoint such and so many of the Governors of the said Corporation for the time being as they shall judge expedient, to be Committees of the said Corporation, for the better dispatching and more easy managing and carrying on the purposes aforesaid, and the true intent and meaning of these presents; and to invest such Committees with such powers as the Governors of the said Corporation assembled in a General Court, or the major part of them so assembled, shall think fit to entrust them with, pursuant to the powers hereby given to the Governors hereinbefore named and constituted. And for the better effecting our will and pleasure in these presents declared, we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, authorise and command the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for and discharged, our said Royal Bounty may be applied and disposed to and amongst such of the poor Clergy, the augmentation of whose maintenance will appear to be most necessary. And for the better managing, ordering, and governing the affairs of the said Corporation, We do, by these presents, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant to the said "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," and their successors, and do hereby ordain and appoint, That there shall be, from time to time for ever, one able and sufficient person to be nominated and chosen as is hereinafter expressed, who shall be and be called "Secretary to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," and who shall act and perform all such matters and things, for and on the behalf of the said Corporation, as shall be found requisite and necessary to be executed and performed by him in such office: And for the better execution of our will and pleasure in that behalf, we have named, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, do name, constitute, and appoint our trusty and well beloved John Chamberlain, esquire, to be the first and present Secretary to the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the said Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," who shall continue in the said office of Secretary during the pleasure of the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy." And we do further by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," and to their successors, that they and their successors shall and may have one able and sufficient person, to be nominated and chosen as is hereinafter mentioned, who shall be and be called "Treasurer to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," and also such inferior officers, substitutes, and servants, as the said Governors for the time being, assembled in a General Court, shall by a majority of votes think fit to choose and elect; which inferior officers and substitutes so elected, We will and ordain, for us, our heirs and successors, shall continue in their several and respective offices during the pleasure of the said Governors for the time being: And we have also named, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, do name, constitute, and appoint our trusty and well-beloved Edward Tennison, senior, gentleman, to be the first and present Treasurer to the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," to continue in the said office of Treasurer during the pleasure of the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy." And further, We do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," and their successors, full power and authority from time to time, as often as it shall happen that any Secretary and Treasurer to the said Governors shall die or be removed from his or their respective offices aforesaid, or whose office or offices shall otherwise become void, to elect and choose, by a majority of votes of such Governors as shall be assembled in a General Court, some other fit person or persons into the office or offices of him or them who shall so die or be removed as aforesaid, or whose office shall otherwise become void; which person or persons so to be chosen shall continue in his or their office or offices whereunto he or they shall be so elected during the pleasure of the Governors. Provided always, and we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, ordain and appoint that the said John Chamberlain and Edward Tennison herein before named and constituted to be the first and present Secretary and Treasurer to the Governors hereby incorporated and their successors, and also every other Secretary and Treasurer hereafter to be elected, shall, before they take upon them the execution of their said several offices, respectively take their corporal oaths for the due and faithful execution of their several offices before any seven or more of the Governors aforesaid for the time being, in a General Court of the said Corporation, who are hereby authorised and required to give and administer the said oaths from time to time accordingly: And the present Treasurer, and every future Treasurer, shall give sufficient security to the said Corporation for his faithful accounting for the moneys he or they shall receive by virtue of the said office. And having no doubt that not only the Governors hereinbefore named and constituted, but also a great number of other our good subjects, will be disposed to follow our example, and will with great cheerfulness and readiness contribute to the further augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, authorise and empower the "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy," to take and receive from such of our good subjects as shall be piously inclined to contribute to the increase of this our Royal Bounty to the poor Clergy, all such voluntary gifts or subscriptions of any sum or sums of moneys, goods, or chattels, or of or for any estate or interest in any manors, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, or other matters or things whatsoever, which any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, shall be willing to give, limit, appoint, or bestow for or towards the further augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy; and further, to cause to be collected and received whatsoever shall be given, contributed, bequeathed, designed, or appointed for the purposes aforesaid, by the hands of the Treasurer to the said Corporation hereby constituted, who shall be appointed to receive the same: And to the end our royal intention in the premises may be better known to our loving subjects, we do hereby require the Governors hereinbefore named and constituted, or any seven or more of them, to cause public notice of this our Royal Charter, or the tenor or scope thereof, to be made in such places or by such ways and means as the said Governors, or any seven or more of them, shall think most conducive to the furtherance of the bounty and charity aforesaid. And further, We do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, give full power and authority unto the Governors aforesaid, and their successors, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to admit into the said Corporation hereby erected and constituted, all and every such person and persons who shall be piously disposed to contribute towards the further augmentation of the maintenance of the said poor Clergy and the advancing so good a work, as the said Governors in a General Court of the said Corporation shall think fit to admit; which person or persons, when so admitted in the said Corporation, shall be and be deemed, called, and reputed members of the said Corporation, and from time to time shall and may vote and act in as ample manner and form, and have and enjoy such and the same powers, privileges, and authorities as other Governor or Governors of the said Corporation hereinbefore named may vote and act, have, enjoy, and perform by virtue of these presents. And we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, authorise and empower the Governors hereby constituted, and their successors, or any seven or more of them (of whom any one of the Privy Council aforesaid for the time being, and any one of the Bishops aforesaid for the time being, and any one of the Judges or of the Counsel learned in the Law of us, our heirs or successors, as aforesaid, to be three at least), in case they shall find the same necessary for carrying on and perfecting the pious intentions and designs of this our Royal Charter, by instruments or writings under the seal of the said Corporation, to depute and substitute such persons as they shall think fit to entrust to take such subscriptions as aforesaid, and to collect and bring in the moneys which shall be contributed, bequeathed, designed, or appointed for the ends and purposes aforesaid, to the hands of the Treasurer to the said Governors for the time being, and to displace or discharge such substitutes or deputies, or any of them, and to appoint others in the place of them or any of them, from time to time, as the said Governors or any seven or more of them (of whom three or more to be such as aforesaid), shall see cause; and also to settle, establish, and appoint such cheques, comptrols, and orders as they shall think necessary or safe, for the full and due charging of the Treasurer, and also the said deputies, and all and every other person and persons whatsoever, who shall receive or be chargeable with any moneys or other profits for the said charitable use or purpose, to answer, pay, or account for the same. And we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, authorise, require, and command the said "Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy" from time to time to cause to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, the name of the persons who shall subscribe or contribute, give, advise, or appoint any moneys, or any real or personal estate, or other matters or things towards this charitable and good design, with the sums of money, goods, chattels, estates, or other things by them respectively contributed, given, limited, appointed, or devised, to the end a perpetual memorial may be made of such well-disposed persons who shall become Benefactors as aforesaid, and whereby the Treasurer to the said Corporation may be charged with more certainty in his accounts. And our farther will and pleasure is, and we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, give full power and authority unto the said Edward Tennison, and the Treasurer to the said Governors for the time being, from time to time, upon the receipt or receipts of any sum or sums of money or other profits for the purposes aforesaid or any of them, to give an acquittance or acquittances for the same, which shall be good and sufficient discharges to all intents and purposes whatsoever: And the said Treasurer for the time being, in his receipts, payments, and accounts, shall be subject to such inspection, examination, and comptrol as the said Governors for the time being, or any four or more of them (whereof such as are before appointed for a special quorum to be three at least) shall establish or appoint. And we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors, grant and declare that these our Letters Patent, or the enrolment thereof, shall be in and by all things good, valid, and effectual in the law, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and shall be taken, construed, and adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense, and to the best advantage of and for the said Corporation, as well in all our courts of record as elsewhere, notwithstanding the not reciting, or not truly or fully reciting, of any Act or Acts of Parliament of or concerning the said First Fruits or Tenths hereby granted or mentioned to be granted, or any part or parcel thereof, and notwithstanding the not mentioning the true 1713-14.

Recital of First Charter.

ANNE, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. Whereas, in and by our Letters Patents under our Great Seal of England, bearing date the third day of November in the third year of our reign, We did incorporate the Governors of the "Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy:" And for the better effecting our will and pleasure in the said Letters Patents declared, We did thereby, for us, our heirs and successors, authorise and command the Governors of the said Corporation thereby constituted, at their first or some other subsequent meeting or meetings, or so many of them as should then meet and be present (of whom any of the Privy Council of us, our heirs or successors, for the time being, and any one of the Bishops of England for the time being, and any one of the Judges of any of the Courts at Westminster for the time being, or one of the two eldest Serjeants at Law, or the Attorney or Solicitor General of us, our heirs or successors, for the time being, to be three at least), to consider of, consult, advise, agree upon, draw up, prepare, and propose in writing to us, our heirs or successors, such proper and necessary rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions as the said Governors, or any seven or more of them as aforesaid, for the time being, should in their discretions judge most convenient to be observed, for and towards the better rule and government of the said Corporation and the members thereof, and the receiving, accounting for, and managing all and every the revenues thereby granted, and all arrears thereof, and also for and concerning the distributing, paying, and disposing of the same, and all other gifts and benevolences that should or might be given or bequeathed to the said Corporation for the charitable ends therein mentioned, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy in the said Letters Patents mentioned; and such rules, methods, orders, directions, and constitutions as should be so proposed, and should be approved, altered or amended by us, our heirs or successors, and such as should be made by us, our heirs and successors, and so signified and declared by us, our heirs or successors, under our or their Great Seal, we would should be the rules, methods, directions, orders and constitutions by which the Governors of our said Corporation, and their successors, should receive, manage, govern, apply, and dispose our said Royal Bounty, and other gifts and benevolences which should or might then after be given or bequeathed to the said Corporation (where the donors thereof should not particularly direct the application thereof), to and for the increase of the maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers, officiating in any Church or Chapel within the kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy and rites of the Church of England as then by law established were and should be used and observed, for whom a maintenance was not sufficiently provided.

And whereas, in and by our said Letters Patents, a Secretary and a Treasurer to the said Corporation were constituted and appointed to continue in the said offices during the pleasure of the said Corporation; and upon a vacancy of either of the said offices, full powers were thereby granted to a General Court of the said Corporation to elect and choose others in their places, to continue during the pleasure of the said Corporation, as by the said Letters Patents, amongst other things therein contained relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear.

And whereas, the Governors of the said Corporation have humbly represented unto us several inconveniences arising from the quorum by the said Charter appointed, to the great delay and obstruction of the business thereof; by reason that by the Charter of the said Corporation, no business could be done by the Governors unless seven were present, and of them one to be a Privy Councillor, and one a Bishop, and one a Judge, or one of our two eldest Serjeants at Law, or our Attorney or Solicitor General; and it having happened very often that at their meetings no business could be done, there not being three such as were by the said Letters Patent so directed to make a quorum.

Recital of the inconvenience attending the Quorum appointed by the first Charter.

And whereas, the Governors of the said Corporation have likewise humbly proposed to us, for our royal approbation, several rules and constitutions for the better rule and government of the said Cor-

Reciting that certain Rules had been proposed.

Secretary and Treasurer, to hold their offices at the pleasure of the Crown, and in future to be appointed by the Crown.

Number of Governors increased.

Any one of the persons mentioned in the first Charter to be of the Quorum, shall with any six other Governors make a Quorum.

Rules, Orders, &c. prescribed.

Augmentations to be by way of purchase. Each augmentation

poration: Now know ye, That we have fully taken all and singular the premises into our royal consideration, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have directed and appointed, and by these presents do direct and appoint, that the present Secretary and Treasurer of the said Corporation shall not continue in their said offices during the pleasure of the said Corporation, but shall from henceforth continue and remain therein during our pleasure. And further, that as often as it shall happen that either of the said offices shall become void, the nomination and appointment shall be in us, our heirs and successors, and not in the General Court of the said Corporation.

And for the better enabling the said Corporation to meet and do business, and to prevent the delay and obstruction of the business of the said Corporation, we have thought fit to increase the number of the Governors of the said Corporation; and we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, add to the Governors of the said Corporation the following persons—viz. the officers of our Board of Green Cloth, our serjeants at law, and counsel learned in the law, and our four clerks in ordinary of our privy council for the time being: And we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, declare and grant, that they shall be, to all intents and purposes, Governors of the said Corporation, together with the other Governors named in the Charter, as fully as if they had been expressly mentioned in the said Letters Patents of incorporation. And we do hereby also, for us, our heirs and successors, direct and appoint that any one of the persons in the said Letters Patents mentioned to be of the quorum, with six other Governors, shall make a quorum for the future, any thing in the said former Letters Patents to the contrary notwithstanding; reserving nevertheless to us, our heirs and successors, the power of restoring at any time the old quorum, or making or directing any other quorum under our or their Sign Manual.

And for the better rule and government of the said Corporation, of our further especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, we, having duly considered of the several rules, orders, and constitutions, humbly proposed to us by the Governors of the said Corporation, have made, ordained, approved of, ratified, confirmed, and established, and by these presents, we do, for us, our heirs and successors, make, ordain, approve of, ratify, confirm, and establish the several rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions herein-after mentioned, viz.

1. That the augmentations to be made by the said Corporation shall be by the way of purchase, and not by the way of pension.
2. That the stated sum to be allowed to each Cure which shall be augmented be two hundred pounds, to be invested in a purchase at the expense of the Corporation.

3. That the Governors shall begin with augmenting those Cures that do not exceed the value of ten pounds per annum, and shall augment no other till those have all received our bounty of two hundred pounds, except in the cases, and according to the limitations hereafter named.

4. That in order to encourage benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to complete the good that was intended by our Bounty, the Governors may give the said sum of two hundred pounds to Cures not exceeding five and thirty pounds per annum, where any persons will give the same or greater sum or value in lands or tithes.

5. That the Governors shall every year, between Christmas and Easter, cause the account of what money they have to distribute that year, to be audited; and when they know the sum, public notice shall be given in the Gazette, or such other way as shall be judged proper, that they have such a sum to distribute in so many shares; and that they will be ready to apply those shares to such Cures as want the same, and are by the rules of the Corporation qualified to receive them, where any persons will add the like or greater sum to it, or the value in lands or tithes, for any such particular Cure.

6. That if several benefactors offer themselves, the Governors shall first comply with those that offer most.

7. Where the sums offered by other benefactors are equal, the Governors shall always prefer the poorer livings.

8. Where the Cures to be augmented are of equal value, and the benefactions offered by others are equal, there they shall be preferred that first offer.

[Cures are of equal value the first offer to be preferred.

9. Provided nevertheless, that the preference shall be so far given to Cures not exceeding ten pounds per annum, that the Governors shall not apply above one third part of money they have to distribute that year to Cures exceeding that value.

[Cures above 10l. per annum

10. Where the Governors have expected till Michaelmas what benefactors will offer themselves, then no more proposals shall be received for that year; but if any money remain after that to be disposed of, in the first place two or more of the Cures in the gift of the Crown, not exceeding ten pounds per annum, shall be chosen by lot, to be augmented preferably to all others, the precise number of these to be settled by a General Court, when an exact list of them shall be brought in to the Governors.

to be 200l.

Cures not exceeding 10l. per annum, to be first augmented except, &c.

Governors may meet a Benefaction of 200l. to a Cure not exceeding 35l. per annum with 200l.

Account to be audited yearly.

The remainder of the money to be applied in augmenting such

Cures not exceeding 10l. per annum as shall be chosen by lot.

When all such Livings shall be so augmented, Livings of greater value to be augmented.

11. As for what shall remain of the money to be disposed of after that, a list shall be taken of all the Cures in the Church of England, not exceeding ten pounds per annum, and so many of them be chosen by lot as there shall remain sums of two hundred pounds for their augmentation.

12. When all the Cures not exceeding ten pounds per annum shall be so augmented, the Governors shall then proceed to augment those of greater value, according to such rules as shall at any time hereafter be proposed by them and approved by us, our heirs or successors, under our or their Great Seal.

Gifts to be applied according to the direction of the Donors.

Where given generally to be applied as the rest of the Bounty Fund.

13. That all charitable gifts in real or personal estates made to the Corporation shall be strictly applied according to the particular direction of the donor or donors thereof, where the donors shall give particular directions for the disposition thereof: and where the gifts shall be generally to the Corporation, without any such particular direction, the same shall be applied as the rest of the fund or stock of the Corporation is to be applied.

Book to be kept for the entry of Benefactions.

14. That a book shall be kept, wherein shall be entered all the subscriptions, contributions, gifts, devises, or appointments made or given of any monies, or of any real or personal estate whatsoever, to the charity mentioned in the Charter, and the names of the donors thereof, with the particulars of the matters so given: the same book to be kept by the Secretary of the Corporation.

Benefactions to a Cure to be recorded on a stone in the Church.

15. That a memorial of the Benefactions and augmentations made to each Cure shall, at the charge of the Corporation, be set up in writing on a stone to be fixed in the Church of the Cure, so to be increased, there to remain in perpetual memory thereof.

Treasurer after receipt of money to account for the same at the next Court.

16. When the Treasurer shall have received any sum of money for the use of the Corporation, he shall, at the next General Court to be holden after such receipt, lay an account thereof before the Governors, who may order and direct the same to be placed out for the improvement thereof, upon some public fund or other security, till they have an opportunity of laying it out in proper purchases for the augmentation of Cures.

Treasurer's annual account to be audited.

17. That the Treasurer do account annually before such a Committee of the Governors as shall be appointed by a General Court of the said Corporation, who shall audit and state the same; and the said account shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall be laid before the next General Court, after such stating; the same to be there re-examined and determined.

18. The persons whose Cures shall be augmented, shall pay no manner of fee or gratification to any of the officers or servants of this Corporation.

Incumbents of augmented Cures to pay no fees. Secretary's salary 120l. per annum.

19. That the salary of the Secretary of the said Corporation be one hundred and twenty pounds per annum, in full for his service, and for a clerk, and for stationary wares, to commence from Christmas 1712, to be paid him half yearly by the Treasurer of the said Corporation.

20. That the salary of the Treasurer of the said Corporation be one hundred and twenty pounds per annum, in full for his service, and for a clerk, and for all his expences whatsoever (except the fees which he shall pay or allow in the Treasury or Exchequer), to be allowed half yearly, as aforesaid.

Treasurer's salary 120l. per annum.

All and singular which said rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions, We will and do, by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, signify and declare, shall be the rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions by which the Governors of the said Corporation and their successors shall receive, manage, govern, apply, and dispose our said Royal Bounty, and other gifts and benevolences in the said Letters Patents mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Charter, and of these presents.

The said rules declared to be those by which the Royal Bounty is to be managed; according to the true [intent and meaning of the first and second Charter.

Reserving, nevertheless, to us, our heirs and successors, full and absolute power and authority from time to time, and at all times hereafter, under our or their Great Seal, to make any alterations in the several and respective orders aforesaid, and to give and make in like manner such other orders, rules, and directions for and concerning the better government of the said Corporation, and for the managing, governing, applying, and disposing of our Royal Bounty to them granted, and for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, according to the true intention of the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, as to us, our heirs and successors, shall seem meet.

Reservation to the Crown of power to alter these rules and to make others for the managing the Royal Bounty, according to the first Charter.

Lastly, We do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, grant that these our Letters Patents, or the enrolment thereof, shall be in and by all things good, firm, valid, sufficient, and effectual in the law, notwithstanding the not reciting or not truly or fully reciting the said Letters Patents of Incorporation, or the date thereof, or any other omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause, or thing whatsoever, to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

Omissions, &c. not to invalidate these Letters Patent.

In witness whereof, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patents. Witness Ourself, at Westminster, the fifth day of March in the twelfth year of our reign.

By Writ of Privy Seal, COCKS.

Rules and Orders under the Royal Sign Manual, subsequent to the Second Charter.

Rules and Orders in 2d Charter have been altered and some new Rules added.

Royal Sign Manual 18 Dec. 1718. 5 Geo. 1.

[Repeated 24 May 1736.]

In pursuance of the powers reserved to her Majesty Queen Anne her heirs and successors by the second Charter to the Governors of her Royal Bounty and under the authority of the statute 1 Geo. I. c. 10. s. 3. the Orders and Rules prescribed by that Charter have from time to time been altered and others have been given and made under the Royal Sign Manual as follows :

The 4th and 9th Rules were altered by the following Rules under the Royal Sign Manual :

"That in order to encourage Benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to complete the good that was intended by our Bounty, the Governors may join with Benefactors in augmenting any Living not exceeding £50 per annum, where any persons shall give the same or greater sum or value in lands or tithes."

"Provided nevertheless, that the preference shall be so far given to Cures not exceeding £10 per annum, that the Governors shall not apply above two third parts of the money they have to distribute that year to Cures exceeding that value."

Royal Sign Manual same date.

Secretary's salary increased to 300*l. per annum*.

The 19th Rule was altered by increasing the salary of the Secretary to £200 per annum.

Royal Sign Manual 16th Jan. 1724-5, 11 Geo. 1.

Salaries of Secretary and Treasurer increased to 250*l. per annum* each.

The 19th and 20th Rules were altered by increasing the salaries of the Secretary and Treasurer to £250 per annum each.

Royal Sign Manual 24 Dec. 1725, 12 Geo. 1.

[Repeated 24th May, 1736.]

The 9th Rule was again altered, as follows :

"In case the money to be distributed in any year shall not be sufficient to add the Bounty to all the Benefactions offered by others that year, so that some of them must remain postponed to the next year, then the Governors shall the next year apply the Bounty to such Benefactions so postponed, before all other Benefactions offered afterwards."

"Provided nevertheless, that in all cases the preference shall be so far given to Cures not exceeding £10 per annum, that the Governors shall not apply above two third parts of the money to be distributed in any year to Cures exceeding that value."

Letters Patent under the Great Seal, 24

By these Letters Patent all the before mentioned alterations made in the 4th and 9th Rules by the Rule bearing date the 18th day of December 1718, and by the Rule bearing date the 2d day of December 1725, were repealed, determined, and made void, and the original 4th and 9th Rules were re-established and confirmed.

Geo. III.

The following is the Rule under the Royal sign Manual made soon after the first grant by Parliament of £100,000, to the Governors.

GEORGE R.

George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. Whereas the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, have humbly represented unto us, that, in pursuance of our most gracious Message to both Houses of Parliament, the sum of one hundred thousand pounds hath been lately granted in aid of the fund already vested in the said Governors by our said Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, and to be applied in the increase of the maintenance of the poor Clergy according to the rules and regulations by which the funds of that Corporation are governed; that, with a view to promote the residence of the Clergy on their Benefices, the Governors have agreed upon and prepared the following Rule, and have humbly proposed that the same may be approved, confirmed, and established by us, under our Royal Sign Manual, if we in our Royal Wisdom should so think fit, viz.

"That, when a living shall be augmented, either by Lot or Benefaction, out of the said additional fund, and it shall appear by the immediate preceding returns, made in pursuance of the late statute for promoting residence, and by the returns of Livings under one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, made to the Governors in pursuance of a late address to us by the House of Lords for that purpose, or otherwise, that the Incumbent does not reside or perform the duties of such Living in person, or possesses another Living of the value of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, the Governors may be enabled to direct that the money appropriated for such augmentation shall be reserved, and that the interest thereof shall accumulate into principal for the benefit of the Living, and neither the principal or interest be invested in land or other hereditaments (except in providing a house and offices within the parish suitable for the residence of the Minister) until an Incumbent not possessed of another Living of the value of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, shall bona fide reside upon or perform the duties of the said augmented Living in person."

In Case of non Residence &c. of Incumbent's, Interest on Augmentations shall accumulate.

And the said Governors have further represented, that by the fourth Rule contained in the Charter granted by our said royal predecessor, bearing date the fifth day of March 1713-14, for the management of the said original fund, it is directed, that in order to encourage Benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to complete the good that was intended by the said Bounty, the Governors may give the sum of two hundred pounds to Cures not exceeding thirty-five pounds per annum where any persons will give the same or greater sum or value in lands or tithes: that by another Rule, made in the thirtieth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, the said Governors were empowered to give two hundred pounds to Cures not exceeding forty-five pounds per annum (since increased to eighty pounds per annum), where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, would give the same or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands, tithes, or rent-charges: but the said Governors, humbly conceiving that it would tend more to encourage Benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner complete the good that was intended, if the sum to be given by the said Governors out of the said additional fund was three hundred pounds, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds; the said Governors have therefore humbly prayed us,

Governors may give 300*l.* out of the additional fund to meet a Benefaction of 200*l.* &c.

"That the sum to be given by them to each Cure which shall be augmented by benefaction out of the said additional fund be three hundred pounds, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds, or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds,"—if we in our royal wisdom shall so think fit.

We have thought fit to approve of the said Rule, and do by these presents approve and establish the same accordingly, and do hereby direct that the same be added to the other Rules formerly given and established by our late Royal predecessor Queen Anne, by her Letters Patent granted as above mentioned to the Governors of the said Bounty for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the twelfth day of September 1809, in the forty-ninth year of our reign.

By his Majesty's command,

LIVERPOOL.

Royal Sign Manual,

Geo. III.

Governors may meet a Benefaction of 200*l.* or a stipend of 15*l.* per annum to Cures not exceeding 180*l.* per annum, with 200*l.* from their original fund, or with 300*l.* out of the additional fund.

The following Rule was added, viz.

"That the said Governors may be enabled to accept Benefactions for Cures which were not returned into the Exchequer, or to the said Governors, previous to the Returns lately made of Cures not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and which shall not exceed the improved yearly value of one hundred and twenty pounds fixed and certain, the population and duty, and other circumstances, justifying in their opinion the acceptance of such Benefactions; and to give to each of such Cures either two hundred pounds from their said original fund, or three hundred pounds from the said additional fund, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds,"

Geo. III.
Governors may augment by lot Cures not exceeding 50*l.* per annum, when all

Two other Rules were added, viz.

"First, that as soon as all the Cures not exceeding thirty pounds per annum, which are fitly qualified, shall have been augmented, the said Governors shall proceed to augment by lot those Cures that do not exceed fifty pounds per annum, according to the returns of Livings under one hundred and fifty pounds per annum made, or that shall hereafter be made, to the said Governors in pursuance of a late address to us by the House of Lords (in execution as well of an Act passed in the first year of the reign of his said late Majesty King George the First, as of an Act passed in the forty-fifth year of our reign), giving an immediate preference, without lot, to such as, though already augmented, may not exceed thirty pounds per annum according to the same returns, or may hereafter be so certified; and shall not augment by lot any of greater value than fifty pounds, till those shall have all received the said Bounty, except in the cases and according to the limitations expressed and contained in the Rules at first given and established by our said royal predecessor Queen Anne, and except that, on the representation of the Bishop of the Diocese in strong cases of Livings with laborious duty but inadequate income, the said Governors may be enabled to grant more than one augmentation to Livings of such description as soon as they shall be drawn by lot."

above 30*l.* per annum shall have been augmented, giving a preference without lot to those not exceeding 30*l.* per annum.

"Secondly, That the said Governors may be enabled to give a sum of two hundred pounds from their said original fund, or three hundred pounds from the said additional fund, to Cures not exceeding the improved yearly value of one hundred and twenty pounds fixed and certain, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds."

Similar to the power given to the Governors by the last Sign Manual as to Benefactions.

Another Rule was added, viz.

"That the said Governors may be enabled to give from time to time, and in such manner as they shall deem most proper, a preference, in their augmentations from parliamentary grants only, to Livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per annum according to the new returns, the population of which amounts to or exceeds one thousand persons."

Royal Sign Manual 80th May, 1811, 51 Geo. III. Governors may give a preference in their augmenta[tion from the Parliamentary Grants to Cures not exceeding 150*l.* per annum, and with a Population of 1000.

Another Rule was added, viz.

"That the said Governors may be enabled to give from time to time, and in such manner as they shall deem most proper, a preference in their augmentations, from the Parliamentary grants only, to Livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, according to the new returns, the population of which amounted to or exceeds eight hundred persons."

Royal Sign Manual, 25th May, 1813, 53 Geo. III. Governors may give a preference in their aug[mentations out of the Parliamentary Grants only to Cures not exceeding 150*l.* per annum, and with a population of 800.

SUPPLEMENT

ACCOUNT OF THE AUGMENTATION OF

Small Livings,

BY

“THE GOVERNORS OF THE BOUNTY OF QUEEN ANNE, FOR THE AUGMENTATION OF THE MAINTENANCE OF THE POOR CLERGY,”

BEING

A CONTINUATION OF THAT ACCOUNT

TO THE

31st Day of DECEMBER, 1834.

BY

CHRISTOPHER HODGSON,

Secretary and Treasurer.

LONDON :

PRINTED BY JOHN MILLER,
BRIDGE ROAD, LAMBETH.

1835.

IN consequence of applications from many quarters, made to the Governors, for a Continuation of the Account of Queen Anne's Bounty, published in the Year 1826, Mr. HODGSON, their Secretary, has, by the desire of the Governors, prepared a Supplement, shewing the subsequent Alterations in their Proceedings, and the Rules, under the Royal Sign Manual, made since the former publication; and containing an Account of Benefactions and Augmentations to Small Livings, from the 1st day of January, 1826, to the 31st day of December, 1834.

Bounty Office,
1st January, 1835.

ALTERATIONS

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNORS.

I.

Augmentation of Livings by Lot, or to meet Benefactions.

SINCE the original account was published, the remainder of the Parliamentary Grants Fund has been appropriated to the augmentation of small Livings.

Appropriation of the Sum which remained of the Parliamentary Grants.

No alteration has been made in the former Rules or practice in augmenting small Livings, out of the Royal Bounty Fund; except that, in consequence of the whole of the Parliamentary Grants having been appropriated, it has been found necessary to restrict the Grant (out of the Royal Bounty Fund) of augmentations to Livings, to meet Benefactions, to those, which being duly qualified in other respects contain a large population; and with the exception also that the Governors have resolved not to grant an Augmentation to any new church or chapel, unless it be first endowed with revenues to the amount of £45. per annum.

Augmentations to meet Benefactions restricted to Livings where the population is considerable.

Augmentation of new churches restricted to those endowed with £45. per annum.

During the last two years, the Governors have scarcely granted an augmentation to meet a Benefaction to any Living with a less population than five hundred, and in many cases where several Benefactions of £200. each, have been offered to improve a Living; although having a large population, the Governors have been under the necessity of declining to meet the proposal with more than one sum of that amount.

The supplemental accounts of Benefactions and Augmentations will be found in the Appendix.

II.

As to Interest on Augmentation Monies appropriated to Small Livings, out of the Royal Bounty Fund, and Dividends on Reduced Bank Annuities, in which Monies appropriated out of the Parliamentary Grants Fund have been invested.

The rate of interest on Augmentation Monies out of the Royal Bounty Fund, was in the year 1830, increased by the Governors, from £2. per cent. to £3. 5s. per cent. per annum, which has given the greatest satisfaction to the Incumbents of augmented Livings.

By virtue of a rule under the Royal Sign Manual, dated 13th July, 1829, [set forth in the Appendix], the Monies which had been previously, and which also have since been appropriated out of the Parliamentary Grants Fund, have been specifically applied by the Governors in the purchase of an equivalent sum of £3. per cent. Reduced Bank Annuities, and the Dividends thereof are now paid by the Governors to the respective Incumbents of the Livings to which Bank Annuities have been appropriated, in lieu of interest on the augmentation-monies.

A certificate of residence is no longer required.

Certificate of residence not required.

The following directions will be found useful by Incumbents who are entitled to receive interest or dividends on appropriated monies or Bank Annuities :

Directions for receipt of interest and dividends.

The interest and dividends are payable by the Treasurer, Mr. Hodgson, at the Treasurer's office, contiguous to the Governor's house, which is the second on the right hand in Great Dean's Yard, Westminster; the entrance to the Treasurer's office is not through the house, but through an iron gateway, fronting Dean's Yard, and immediately beyond the house.

Interest & dividends payable not at the Governors' house, but the Treasurer's office, immediately beyond it.

Every Incumbent, on his first application for interest or dividend monies, must produce a certificate from the Diocesan, or his Secretary, or the Registrar of the Diocese, as to the date of collation, institution, or licence to the living augmented, and that he continues to be the Incumbent thereof; and he must state the day on which the living became vacant, and by what means.

New Incumbents before their first receipt of interest and dividends, to produce certificate of incumbency.

Where monies are due, both for interest and dividends, a separate receipt for each is indispensable.

Separate receipts for separate funds.

As to Interest,Royal Bounty Fund.

Interest on Royal Bounty Fund, payable from the 11th April till Midsummer, and from 15th Oct. till Christmas, between the hours of 10 & 2, except on holidays.

The half year's interest on augmentation-monies from the Royal Bounty Fund, due at Lady-day in each year, is payable on and after the 11th day of April until Midsummer; and that, due at Michaelmas, is payable on and after the 15th day of October until Christmas, every day (except holidays) between the hours of ten and two o'clock, and not afterwards. A Receipt (in the following form) must be presented at the Treasurer's office half-yearly, without fail, either by a friend, or through the medium of a Banker, as may be most convenient: if sent by the post, or presented in any other way than as above directed, the same cannot be attended to.

Purchases of Houses, Lands, or Tithes.

By the first of the Rules under the Royal Sign Manual, dated 13th July, 1829, it is prescribed as follows:—

“ That henceforth it shall not be obligatory
 “ on the Governors to purchase houses, lands,
 “ or tithes with the sum of money appropriated “ to any Living out of the Parliamentary “ Grants’ Fund, or with the Bank Annuities “ to be substituted for such sum of money,
 “ or any part thereof; but that the Governors “ shall confine themselves to the purchase of “ houses, lands, or the tithes arising from lands “ respectively situate in or so near to the “ parish in which the Living may be, for “ which the same shall be proposed to be pur“ chased, as shall be convenient for the occupa“ tion of the Incumbent thereof, and to the “ purchase of houses, lands, or tithes arising “ from lands respectively situate at a greater “ distance, in such cases where the Governors “ shall be satisfied that an extraordinary ad“ vantage may be obtained for the respective “ Incumbents of the Livings for which the “ same respectively shall be proposed to be “ made, and their successors.”

Lands may be purchased if in the Parish where the Living is, or in an adjoining Parish, if within occupation distance.

The Governors may, in case of extraordinary advantage, purchase more distant lands.

The tenor of the new Rule, in a great measure adopted.

Though this Rule concerns only purchases with monies, or Bank Annuities appropriated to Livings from the Parliamentary Grants’ Fund, yet the Governors, since they, in 1830, increased the rate of interest, payable to the Incumbents of Livings augmented out of the Royal Bounty Fund, from £2. to £3. 5s. per cent. have, in a great degree, regulated their proceedings according to the tenor of it, with respect to purchases with money appropriated to Livings out of the last-mentioned fund.

IV.

As to Loans of Money by the Governors, on Mortgage, under the Acts 17 Geo. 3, c. 53, and 21 Geo. 3, c. 66.

The Governors continue to lend money to Incumbents of Livings, for building, repairing, and purchasing glebe houses: the rate of interest which they have for some time past required, and which they now require is £3½. per cent. instead of £3. per cent. mentioned in the original publication; and this is the only alteration which has been made by the Governors respecting such mortgages.

The Governors continue to lend money on mortgage for building, &c. glebe houses, on application to Mr. Dyneley, their Solicitor.

Rate of interest now required is £3. 10s. per cent.

Applications for loans for the above purposes are to be made to John Dyneley, Esq. Solicitor to the Governors, Field Court, Gray's Inn.

Application of appropriated Money to pay Expenses of Building.

The Governors do not now allow the application of money, appropriated to the augmentation of a Living, will apply

The Governors will apply

appropriated money to building purposes only when two years income is insufficient to building purposes, if one year's income of the Living be sufficient to pay the same, for in that case it is expected that the Incumbent do pay the same out of the yearly profits of his Living. They will however allow appropriated money to be applied to building purposes, where the Incumbent shall have borrowed two years income on mortgage, under Gilbert's Acts, for such purposes, if the money to be borrowed shall be insufficient to pay the whole expence; but in this case application must be made and the Governors' consent obtained, before the commencement of the works.

GEORGE THE FOURTH—by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.—to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting;—
Whereas the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, have humbly represented unto us, that our most Gracious Predecessor, the late King George the Third, by a Rule, under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 12th day of September, 1809, upon a representation by the said Governors, stating, that in pursuance of His said late Majesty's most gracious Message to both Houses of Parliament, the sum of one hundred thousand pounds had been then lately granted in aid of the fund already vested in the said Governors, by our Royal Predecessor, Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, to be applied in the increase of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the rules and regulations by which the funds of this corporation are governed; and stating that, with a view to promote the residence of the Clergy on their Benefices, the said Governors had agreed upon and prepared the following rule, which, together with a certain other rule or regulation, approved, confirmed, and established by the said Royal Sign Manual (not hereby proposed to be affected) they humbly proposed might be approved, confirmed, and established by His said late Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, viz.:—

This part of the Rule of the 12th
Sept. 1809, is repealed
by this present
Rule.

“ That when a Living shall be augmented, either “ by lot or benefaction, out of the said additional fund,
“ and it shall appear by the immediate preceding returns, “ made in pursuance of the late statute for promoting “ residence, and by the returns of Livings under one “ hundred and fifty pounds per annum, made to the “ Governors in pursuance of a late address to his said “ late Majesty, by the House of Lords, for that purpose, “ or otherwise; that the Incumbent does not reside, or “ perform the duties of such Living in person, or possess “ another Living of the value of one hundred and fifty “ pounds per annum, the Governors may be enabled to “ direct, that the money appropriated for such augmenta“ tion shall be reserved; and that the interest thereof “ shall accumulate into principal for the benefit of the “ Living; and that neither the principal or interest be “ invested in land or other hereditaments (except in “ providing a house and offices within the parish, suitable “ for the residence of the minister) until an Incumbent,
“ not possessed of another Living of the value of one “ hundred and fifty pounds per annum, shall bona fide “ reside upon, or perform the duties of the said aug“ mented Living in person;”—Did signify His Royal approbation of the said Rule, and did then approve and establish the same accordingly, and did thereby direct, that the same should be added to the other Rules formerly given and established by Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, by Her Royal letters patent. That doubts have been entertained, whether in strict legal construction the Rule herein before set forth does not impose inconvenient restrictions upon the Governors, and more particularly by restraining them from allowing interest on augmentations to Incumbents of Livings augmented out of the said Grants, who may be prevented from residing thereon or performing the duties thereof by ill health, or infirmity of mind or body, or by some other unavoidable cause, or pressing emergency of a temporary nature, to be allowed by the Bishop of the Diocese by writing under his hand, and from allowing such interest to Clergymen performing the duties of Livings so augmented during the vacancy thereof, and to Curates performing the duties of Livings so augmented during the absence of the Incumbents thereof in certain cases.

That in order to remedy such inconvenience, the Governors are desirous that the Rule hereinbefore set forth at large, and comprised in the said Royal Sign Manual, may be made void, and they have agreed upon and prepared the following Rule in the place thereof, and humbly propose that the same may be approved, confirmed, and established by us under our Royal Sign Manual, if we in our Royal wisdom should think fit, viz. :—

“ That no interest on augmentations to Livings out “ of the Parliamentary Grants Fund, by lot or benefaction, “ or given by Benefactors to obtain augmentations out of
 “ that fund, be paid to the Incumbents thereof in any “ year, unless such Incumbents do bona fide reside
 “ thereon, or perform the duties thereof for the period
 “ required by law in the year for which such interest “ shall be demanded; but nevertheless, that in cases “ where the non-residence or non-performance of duty
 “ by any such Incumbents shall be proved to the satis“ faction of the said Governors to have been solely occa“ sioned by the actual illness or infirmity of mind or body
 “ of such Incumbents, or by some other unavoidable cause “ or pressing emergency of a temporary nature, to be “ allowed by the Bishop of the Diocese by writing under “ his hand; it shall be lawful for the Governors, at their “ discretion, to allow the interest to Incumbents so cir-“ cumstanced; and also, that it shall be lawful for the “ Governors, at their discretion, to allow interest on such “ augmentations and benefactions as aforesaid, to Clergy“ men who shall perform the duties of Livings so aug“ mented during the vacancy thereof; and also, that it “ shall be lawful for the said Governors, at their discretion, “ to allow such interest, or a sufficient part thereof, to the “ Curates of Livings so augmented, during the absence of “ the Incumbents thereof, in cases where it shall be “ certified to the Governors by the Bishop of the Diocese, “ that the stipends to such Curates cannot be paid by

And the said Governors humbly request, that the Rule hereinbefore set forth at large, comprised in the said Royal Sign Manual of the 12th day of September, 1809, may be repealed, determined, and made void, and that the said Rule, hereby proposed by the said Governors, may be substituted for the same and be added to the other Rules formerly given by our said Royal Predecessor, Queen Anne, by her letters patent, granted to the said Governors, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy. We have thought fit to approve of the Rule hereinbefore set forth at large being repealed, determined, and made void, and do by these presents repeal, determine, and make void the same accordingly; and to approve of the said Rule, proposed by the said Governors, to be substituted for the same; and do by these presents approve and establish the same accordingly; and do hereby direct that the same be added to the other Rules formerly given and established by our said late Royal Predecessor, Queen Anne, by Her letters patent, granted as above mentioned to the Governors of the said Bounty, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy. Given at our Court at Windsor, the 11th day of May, 1827, in the Eighth Year of our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

GEORGE R.

Royal Sign Manual,

WHEREAS the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, have, by their petition under their common seal, humbly represented unto Us, that amongst the Rules established by her late Majesty, Queen Anne, for the management of her late Majesty's Royal Bounty, by letters patent, bearing date the 5th day of March, in the 12th year of Her said Majesty's reign, the salary of the Treasurer of this Corporation was by the 19th Rule appointed to be £120. per annum, and in the 11th year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the First, the said Rule was by His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual altered, and the salary of the Treasurer made £250. per annum.

25th June,
1827, Treasurer's salary increased to £600. per annum.

That since such alteration of the said Rule, the business within the department of the Treasurer of this Corporation has very much increased, in consequence of a great number of Poor Livings having been augmented, not only by the Royal Bounty and the contributions of pious individuals, but also by the means of the fund raised by Parliamentary Grants, eleven in number, of £100,000. each, to the said Governors, for the purpose of enabling them to carry on more extensively the augmentation of small Livings: so that the Governors consider the Treasurer's salary as appointed in 1724—5 to be an inadequate compensation for the enlarged duties and responsibility of the office.

The said Governors do hereby humbly pray, that the said 19th Rule may be again altered, and that the salary of the Treasurer may be five hundred pounds per annum for his own services only, to commence from the 25th day of March, 1827, and be allowed to him in his accounts, half-yearly, if We, in Our Royal wisdom shall think fit. We having taken the same into Our Royal consideration, are graciously pleased to approve of what is therein proposed to Us by the said Governors, and accordingly Our will and pleasure is, that the said 19th Rule may be again altered, and that the salary of the Treasurer may be five hundred pounds per annum for his own services only, to commence from the 25th day of March, 1827, and to be allowed to him in his accounts half-yearly: and We do by these presents declare, for Us, Our heirs, and successors, that the said 19th Rule may be so altered.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the 25th day of June, 1827, in the Eighth Year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

(COUNTERSIGNED) W. STURGES BOURNE.

GEORGE R.

Royal Sign Manual, dated 13th July 1829, for authorizing the Governors to place an equivalent of Reduced Bank Annuities to the Credit of Livings in substitution for monies appropriated for the augmentation thereof respectively out of the Parliamentary Grants; & for restricting the purchase of lands; and for other purposes.

GEORGE THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, greeting: Whereas, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, have humbly represented unto us, that in pursuance of Messages from the Crown to both Houses of Parliament, at several times within the last twenty years, Eleven Sums of One hundred thousand Pounds each, have been granted to the Governors, in aid of the Fund vested in them by our Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, to be applied to the increase of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the Rules and Regulations by which the Funds of that Corporation were governed.

That the said several sums of one hundred thousand pounds were, as and when the same were received by the said Governors, invested in the purchase of three pounds per centum Bank Annuities, in the name of the Corporation, and an account of the fund so constituted, called the Parliamentary Grants Fund, and of all receipts and payments in respect thereof, has been kept by them, separate and apart from the original Fund constituted by the Bounty of Her said Majesty Queen Anne.

That the said Governors have from time to time, out of the said Parliamentary Grants Fund, appropriated sums of money for the augmentation of certain small Livings which were found by them to be fitly qualified to be so augmented; and in many cases Benefactions by Corporations and individuals have been given jointly with Augmentations by the said Governors, and appropriated for the improvement of such Livings.

That by Letters Patent, bearing date the 5th day of March, in the 12th year of the reign of Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, certain rules were established for carrying on the trusts reposed in the said Governors.—The first and second of which rules are as follows:—

1st.—“ That the augmentations to be made by the said Corporation, shall be by the way of purchase, and not by the way of pension.”

2nd.—“ That the stated sum to be allowed to each Cure which shall be augmented, be £200, to be invested in a purchase at the expence of the Corporation.”

That by an Act of Parliament, 43 Geo. 3, cap. 107, the Governors are enabled to apply money appropriated by them to the augmentation of any Living, or any part thereof, in or towards the building, rebuilding, or purchasing a house, and any other proper erections, within the parish, convenient and suitable for the residence of the Minister thereof.

That in many cases the whole or part of the sums which have been appropriated by the Governors out of the said Parliamentary Grants Fund, to Livings, have been, by virtue of the two rules before-mentioned, laid out in the purchases of houses, lands, tythes, and hereditaments, which have been conveyed to the Incumbents of such Livings respectively, and their successors, at the expence of the Corporation, who, thereupon, (whether resident, or non-resident on such Livings) entered into and received and continue to receive the rents and profits thereof: and in many other cases the Governors have, by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, 43 Geo. 3, applied the whole, or part of the sums appropriated to Livings, in or towards the building, rebuilding, or purchasing houses, and other proper erections, for the residence of the respective Ministers of such Livings.

That interest is at present allowed by the Governors to the respective Incumbents of Livings augmented out of the Parliamentary Grants Fund on the amount of the Sum appropriated to each Living, and which has not been laid out and applied in a purchase, nor for building purposes, at the rate of 4*l.* per centum per annum, except as to certain Livings augmented out of a small part of the said Parliamentary Grants Fund, to the respective Incumbents whereof interest at the rate of 2*l.* per centum per annum is allowed, subject to the rule next hereinafter set forth:

That on the 11th day of May, 1827, we were pleased, under our Royal Sign Manual, to repeal, determine, and make void one of two rules, under the Royal Sign Manual of his late Majesty King Geo. 3rd, bearing date the 12th day of September, 1809, and to approve of the rule hereinafter set forth to be substituted for the same—that is to say,

“ That no interest on augmentations to Livings out of “ the Parliamentary Grants Fund, by lot or benefaction,
“ or given by benefactors to obtain augmentations out of
“ that Fund, be paid to the Incumbents thereof in any “ year, unless such Incumbents do bonâ fide reside
“ thereon, or perform the duties thereof for the period “ required by law in the year for which such interest shall “ be demanded; but, nevertheless, that in cases where “ the non-residence or non-performance of duty by any “ such Incumbents shall be proved to the satisfaction of “ the said Governors, to have been solely occasioned by “ the actual illness or infirmity of mind or body of such “ Incumbents, or by some other unavoidable cause, or “ pressing emergency of a temporary nature, to be “ allowed by the Bishop of the Diocese, by writing under
“ his hand, it shall be lawful for the Governors, at their “ discretion, to allow the interest to Incumbents so cir-“ cumstanced; and also that it shall be lawful for the “ Governors, at their discretion, to allow interest on “ such augmentations and benefactions as aforesaid, to “ Clergymen who shall perform the duties of Livings, so “ augmented, during the vacancy thereof; and also that “ it shall be lawful for the said Governors, at their dis“ cretion, to allow such interest, or a sufficient part “ thereof, to the Curates of Livings, so augmented,
“ during the absence of the Incumbents thereof, in cases “ where it shall be certified to the Governors, by the “ Bishop of the Diocese, that the stipends to such Curates “ cannot be paid by the Incumbents out of their own “ private resources, and that the profits of such livings, “ without such interest, or a part thereof being so allowed,
“ are insufficient to pay such stipends;—and that the “ interest on such augmentations and benefactions to “ Livings augmented as aforesaid, which shall not be “ payable to the Incumbents entitled to the same, by “ their residence or performance of the duty of their “ Livings respectively, or which shall not be allowed by “ the Governors to the Incumbents or Curates of such “ Livings, in any of the special cases before-mentioned, “ shall be added to the principal appropriated to such “ Livings respectively, for the further augmentation “ thereof.”

That on taking an account of the Parliamentary Grants Fund by the said Governors, on the 18th of March 1829, it appears, that the amount of the sums remaining appropriated to Livings out of that Fund, including interest on some parts thereof, which had not been claimed by the Incumbents of certain Livings, was one million eighty thousand, six hundred and twenty-two pounds, eleven shillings and five pence sterling, and that the Capital of the Governors answerable for that sum, when called for, to be invested in purchases, and in building or purchasing residence houses, consisted of nine hundred and five thousand and ninety pounds six shillings and five pence, Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities; four hundred and thirty-four thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine pounds eleven shillings and five pence, Reduced Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, and in the Treasurer's hands two thousand five hundred and fifty-three pounds eighteen shillings and one penny Cash.

That in consequence of the difficulty in making advantageous purchases of lands or tythes with the Monies appropriated out of the said Fund to the augmentation of small Livings, and the inconvenience and responsibility to which the Governors are subjected, in consequence of the sums so appropriated by them being in Money, and therefore of fixed and certain value, and their capital being in Bank Annuities, and therefore of fluctuating and uncertain value; and as it does not appear to the Governors that the immediate investment of appropriated monies in the purchase of lands or tythes is a matter of paramount importance, the Governors are desirous that the obligation on them to make such purchases may be removed, so far as that they may neither be bound to make nor restricted from making such purchases; and that they may be enabled to make a specific application, in respect of each Living to which there is any money remaining appropriated, of so much Three per cent. Bank Annuities, out of their capital, as shall be equivalent to the sum of money remaining appropriated to each such Living, and in substitution thereof; and the Governors are also desirous, that in future, when an augmentation shall be granted to any Living out of the said fund, or the Governors shall receive monies for the improvement of Livings and which shall belong to the Parliamentary Grants Fund account, the value thereof respectively in Three per cent. Bank Annuities, shall be ascertained, and that so much of such Bank Annuities, out of their capital, may be placed to the credit of such Living as shall be so ascertained to be the value, and that the dividends to arise from the Bank Annuities which from time to time shall remain to the credit of Livings may be paid to the respective Incumbents of such Livings; and the Governors are also desirous that in future the whole or any part of the consideration money to be paid for lands or tythes, which shall be purchased by them for any Living, should be raised by sale of the whole or a competent part, as may be required, of the Three per cent. Bank Annuities which shall, at the time of the purchase, remain to the credit of the Living in respect whereof any such purchase shall be made; and that the whole, or any part of the monies at any time required for building, rebuilding or purchasing a house and other proper erections within the parish, convenient for the residence of the Incumbent of a Living, to the credit of which a sum of Bank Annuities shall remain, should be raised in the same manner.

That, in order to accomplish the several objects before-mentioned, the Governors consider it will be necessary that the rule under our Sign Manual, dated the 11th day of May 1827, and which rule is hereinbefore set forth, may be made void, and that the first and second rules contained in the said Letters Patent, dated the 5th of March, 12th Queen Anne, and which rules are hereinbefore set forth, and all other rules which, by the said Letters Patent or by any instrument under the Royal Sign Manual of a date subsequent to the said Letters Patent, have been granted to the said Governors, may be altered, varied and modified according and to be subject to the several rules hereinafter set forth, which the said Governors have agreed upon and prepared, in case we shall be pleased to approve, confirm and establish such rules under our Sign Manual—viz.—

1.—That, henceforth it shall not be obligatory on the Governors to purchase houses, lands or tythes, with the sum of money appropriated to any Living out of the Parliamentary Grants Fund, or with the Bank Annuities to be substituted for such sum of money, or any part thereof, but that the Governors shall confine themselves to the purchase of houses, lands or the tythes arising from lands respectively situate in or so near to the parish in which the Living may be, for which the same shall be proposed to be purchased, as shall be convenient for the occupation of the Incumbent thereof, and to the purchase of houses, lands, or tythes arising from lands respectively situate at a greater distance, in such cases where the Governors shall be satisfied that an extraordinary advantage may be obtained for the respective Incumbents of the Livings for which the same respectively shall be proposed to be made, and their successors.

Restriction as to Purchases of houses, lands, or tythes, with augmentations out of Parliamentary Grants.

2.—That the Governors shall immediately place to the credit of each Living, to which there is a sum of money remaining appropriated on the Parliamentary Grants Fund account, so much Three per cent. Bank Annuities, out of their capital, as, at the lowest price thereof on the day of the date of our Royal Sign Manual, or of the next opening day afterwards if the Books relating to any such Bank Annuities shall be shut on the day of the date of such Sign Manual, shall be equivalent to such sum of money, in substitution thereof.

Conversion of augmentation money already appropriated out of parliamentary grants into Reduced Bank Annuities.

3.—That, henceforth, when augmentations shall be granted by the Governors to Livings out of the said Fund, or the said Governors shall receive monies for the improvement of Livings, and which shall properly belong to the Parliamentary Grants Fund account, the value thereof upon the appropriation of the same respectively, at the then price of Three per cent. Bank Annuities, shall be ascertained, and so much of such Bank Annuities, out of their capital, shall be placed to the credit

The same as to future appropriations.

of such Livings as shall be so ascertained to be the value thereof.

Dividends
of Bank Annuities to be part of yearly Profits of Livings.

4.—That the dividends to arise from the Bank Annuities, which shall from time to time remain to the credit of Livings shall be considered as part and parcel of the yearly profits of the said Livings, and shall be paid by half yearly payments, to the respective Incumbents thereof, or to the Sequestrators of such Livings, if under sequestration.

Purchase
monies—how to be raised.

5.—That the whole or any part of the consideration money to be paid by the Governors for the purchase of houses, lands, or tythes, for any Living, to the credit of which any sum of Bank Annuities shall remain, shall be raised by a sale of the whole, or a competent part of such Bank Annuities, as the case may require.

The same as to monies for building purposes.

6.—That the whole or any part of the monies which shall at any time be allowed by the Governors to be applied for building, rebuilding, or purchasing a house and other proper erections within the parish, convenient for the residence of the Incumbent of a Living, to the credit of which a sum of Bank Annuities shall remain, shall be raised in the same manner as the consideration money for a purchase.

on the 1st
March

7.—That, in every case where Interest Money is now due on any sum appropriated by the Governors out of the Parliamentary Grants to the augmentation of a Living, and it is not known whether the present Incumbent, or the Representatives of a deceased Incumbent be entitled to the same, in consequence of Residence or performance of Duty, or whether it ought to be appropriated to the further augmentation of the Living, under the Rules and Regulations hitherto in force in that respect, the said Interest money shall remain to the credit of such Living in cash; and if no person shall establish a claim to it before the 1st day of March, 1831, an equivalent in Three per cent. Bank Annuities, at the price of that day, for the whole or such part of it as shall not have been paid to any person who may have proved his right thereto, shall be placed to the credit of such Living.

The said Governors do therefore humbly pray us, that the Rule, ^{Rule of 11th May 1827, repealed.} under our Royal Sign Manual, dated the 11th day of May, 1827, and which Rule is hereinbefore set forth, may be made void; and that the first and second Rules contained in the said Letters Patent, dated the 5th day of March, 12th Queen Anne, and which Rules are also hereinbefore set forth, and all other Rules ^{1st and 2d Rules in Letters Patent 5th March, 12 Anne and all other Rules therein & in subsequent Letters Patent and in Instruments under the Royal Sign Manual, are by this present Instrument, under the Royal Sign Manual, made subject to the seven several Rules herein contained.} which by the said Letters Patent, or by any Instruments in Writing, under the Royal Sign Manual, of a date subsequent to the said Letters Patent, have been granted to the said Governors, may be deemed and taken to be subject to the several Rules now proposed; and that the said several Rules hereby proposed by the said Governors, may be approved, confirmed, and established by us, and added to the Rules formerly given and established by Her Majesty, Queen Anne, by Her Royal Letters Patent, if we, in our royal wisdom, shall so think fit. We have thought fit to approve of the Rule under our Royal Sign Manual, dated the 11th day of May, 1827, and which Rule is hereinbefore set forth, being repealed and declared void; and do by these presents repeal, determine, and make void the same accordingly. And to declare, and do by these presents declare, that the first and second Rules contained in the said Letters Patent, dated the 5th day of March, 12th Queen Anne, and all other Rules, which by the said Letters Patent, or by any Instruments under the Royal Sign Manual, of a date subsequent to the said Letters Patent, have been granted to the said Governors, shall in future be deemed and taken to be subject to the seven Rules in the said Representation set forth; and also to approve, confirm, and establish each and every of the said seven Rules in the said Representation contained, and marked with the numbers from one to seven successively: and do by these presents approve, confirm, and establish the same accordingly: And do hereby direct that the same be added to the Rules formerly given and established by our said late Royal Predecessor, Queen Anne, by Her Royal Letters Patent.

Given at our Court at Windsor, the 13th day of July, 1829, in the 10th year of our reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

WILLIAM R.

ROYAL SIGN MANUAL
20 March, 1831.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, greeting :

CONSOLIDATION OF THE OFFICES OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

Whereas, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, have humbly represented unto us, that by Letters Patent, bearing date the 3rd day of November, in the 3d year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, the Governors of Her Royal Bounty were Incorporated, and Her Majesty did grant unto the said Governors, that there should be from time to time for ever, one able and sufficient person to be nominated and chosen, who should be, and be called their Secretary, and that they should and might have one able and sufficient person to be nominated and chosen, who should be and be called their Treasurer ; the said Secretary and Treasurer to continue in their respective offices during the pleasure of the said Governors, with power to the said Governors, in case of a vacancy in either of the said offices, from time to time, to elect and choose some other fit person into such offices respectively ; and power was thereby given unto the Treasurer of the said Governors, for the time being, from time to time, upon the receipt or receipts of any sum or sums of money, or other profits, for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, to give an acquittance or acquittances for the same, which should be good and sufficient discharges, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

And the said Treasurer for the time being, in his Receipts, Payments, and Accounts, should be subject to such inspection, examination, and controul, as the said Governors for the time being, or any four or more of them should establish or appoint. And Her said late Majesty did thereby authorize the said Governors, to prepare and propose to Her Majesty proper and necessary Rules, Methods, Directions, Orders, and Constitutions, for the better Government of the Corporation ; and such Rules, Methods, Orders, Directions, and Constitutions, as should be so proposed, and should be approved, altered, or amended by Her late Majesty, her heirs, or successors under the Great Seal, should be those by which the said Governors should receive, manage, govern, and apply the Royal Bounty. That Her said late Majesty Queen Anne, by Letters Patent, bearing date the 5th day of March, in the 12th year of her Reign, after reciting, amongst other things, that the Governors had proposed to Her Majesty for her Royal application, several Rules and Constitutions for the better rule and government of the said Corporation, did direct and appoint that the then Secretary and Treasurer should not continue in their offices during the pleasure of the said Corporation—but should thereupon continue and remain therein during Her Majesty's pleasure; and that as often as it should happen that either of the said offices should become void, the nomination and appointment should be in her said Majesty, her heirs and successors, and not in the General Court of the said Corporation.—That by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 1st year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the 1st., entitled “An Act for making more effectual “Her late Majesty's gracious intentions, for Augmenting the “Maintenance of the Poor Clergy,” it is amongst other things enacted, that all such Rules, Methods, Directions, and Constitutions, as should from time to time be by the said Governors agreed upon, prepared and proposed to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Letters Patent, of Incorporation, and by His Majesty, his heirs and successors, approved under his or their Sign Manual, should be as good, valid, and effectual Rules, Methods, Directions, Orders, and Constitutions, for the purposes aforesaid, as if the same were made and established under the Great Seal of His Majesty, his heirs or successors.

That the office of Treasurer to the said Governors is now vacant by the death of John Paterson, Esq. That the office of Secretary is at this time held by Christopher Hodgson, Esq. That much inconvenience has occurred in consequence of the offices of Secretary and Treasurer to the said Governors being separate, and the Governors therefore consider that the affairs of the said Corporation will be managed in a more satisfactory manner, as well as much less expence to the Corporation, and also with less trouble to the poor Clergy, if the said offices were united,—and the said Governors also consider it to be expedient, by reason of the very large amount of their annual receipts and payments, that they should be at liberty for greater security to employ a Banker or Bankers, to receive and pay such sums of money on their account, as the said Governors may from time to time order and direct;

also to employ a proper person to assist the Governors in auditing their accounts. The said Governors have therefore agreed upon and prepared, in case we shall be pleased to approve, confirm, and establish the following Rules, under our Royal Sign Manual.—

1st.—That the offices of Secretary and Treasurer severally constituted by the Letters Patent, hereinbefore referred to, shall henceforth be united; and that the united office shall be held, and the duties thereof performed by their present Secretary, the said Christopher Hodgson, during our Royal Pleasure, he giving sufficient security to the said Governors for his faithful accounting for the monies he shall receive on their account; and taking his corporal oath for the due and faithful execution of the duties of the said united office; and that the annual stipend of one thousand pounds shall be allowed to the said Christopher Hodgson, in respect of the said united office, in lieu of the annual Salary of 650*l.* granted to the Secretary by the Royal Sign Manual, dated the 12th day of June, 1824, and of the annual Salary of 500*l.* granted to the Treasurer by the Royal Sign Manual, dated the 25th day of June, 1827, and that the duties of the said joint office may be ordered and regulated, in such manner as the Governors shall from time to time direct and appoint.

The offices of Secretary & Treasurer to be united, and held by the present Secretary.

The Governors allowed to employ a Banker, And an Auditor.

2nd.—That the Governors may be at liberty to employ a Banker or Bankers, to receive and pay such sums of money on their account, as the said Governors may order from time to time, and also to employ a proper person or persons to assist the Governors in auditing their accounts.

And the said Governors humbly pray, that the said Rules hereby proposed by them may be approved, confirmed, and established by us, if we in our Royal wisdom shall so think fit.

We, having taken the premises into our Royal consideration, have thought fit to approve of the said Rules proposed by the said Governors, and do by these presents approve and establish the same accordingly; and do hereby direct that the same be added to the other Rules, formerly given and established by our said late Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, by Her Letters Patent, granted as above-mentioned, to the Governors of the said Bounty, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the 20th day of March, 1831, in the first year of our reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

(COUNTERSIGNED)

MELBOURNE.
